THEY TOOK THE NAZIS FOR A SLEIGH RIDE

This is the type of all-metal aero-sled now being used by the Soviet Red Army to embarrass the Germans in the fighting on the eastern front. The sleds, driven by propellers, skimmed over the terrain that was impassable to heavy German mechanized equipment and played a big part in the Russian recapture of the city of Moznaisk, one of the key points of the German line in the Moscow sector.

LOST HOME IN FLAMES

John Hines of Doughty Suffers Misfortune From Fire Sunday Evening

SMITHERS, Feb. 11: — John Hines of Doughty had the misfortune to lose his house by fire on Sunday evening at five o'clock. He had left the house to do some work at a root cellar some distance away and about half an hour later on his way back he saw the house in flames. He got back only in time to save a few articles of furniture from the ground floor.

The fire had, apparently, started on the roof from a spark and, as there were no near neighbors, it was not discovered in time to save the house.

It was a fairly large storey and a half dwelling near the railway station at Doughty. Although there was some insurance the loss will be quite a heavy one for Mr. Hines as he had about 30 tons of potatoes stored in the cellar.

MINERAL INTEREST

Gold and Silver Not Only Metals Sought Now—Base Varieties in Demand.

STEWART, Feb. 11: — A recent shipment of tungsten concentrates from Stewart draws attention to the fact that the Portland Canada district is a potential producer of metals other than gold and silver. Now two other classes of metals are to the fore—first the rare strategic minerals such as tungsten, mercury, molybdenum, tin, etc., and, second, the base metals chief among which are copper, lead and zinc.

In past years when a prospector has been developing property in this part of the country, if the ore showed a high zinc or lead content, it has been the practice to take no further interest in that particular ore body unless it showed a precious metal content. Now it appears that the time may have arrived when that policy will be changed.

War makes many changes. Properties which were not at all interesting some years ago may now, with the heavy demand for basic metals, prove to be of real value not only to their owners but to the country.

NAAS RIVER CHIEF DIES

Edward Haines, Prince of Eagle Crest, Was Prominent and Respected.

KINCOLITH, Feb. 11: — Last week death claimed one of Kincolith's most prominent and respected citizens in the person of Edward C. Haines, Prince of the Eagle Crest, at the age of 39 years. Deceased leaves to mourn his passing his wife, one son and four daughters as well as his brother Sam Lincoln, the present Chief Mountain. Mr. Haines had countless friends both among natives and whites of the coast and southeastern Alaska to all of whom his passing will bring a distinct sense of loss.

The late Mr. Haines has always been a leader in both church and civic affairs. He was mainly responsible for the high quality of the work done in renovating Kincolith Christ Church last year and the installation of the new heating system last month. His steadying influence and far-sighted judgment were always welcome in affairs of his church and village and his word was respected by all.

"LET ME BE YOUR SERVANT!"
—Reddy Kilowatt

"I'm a fast worker, I never sleep, I never take a holiday, my wages are only a few cents a day and I simply love hard work. The more jobs you give me the better I like it, so put me to work now on your ironing, sweeping, cooking and washing. Let me run your radio and your refrigerator, your toaster and your coffee maker. Come in and see all the things I can do."
