

Xmas Party For Forces

Delightful Affair Tuesday Night in Knights of Columbus Hut

A delightful Christmas party for the forces was held in the Knights of Columbus Hut last night, taking the form of a highly enjoyable dance with a crowd of some two hundred young folks—service men and their girl friends—in attendance. Delicious refreshments were a popular feature of the occasion. Excellent music was furnished by an orchestra drawn from musicians among the American forces.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Balagno were in charge of the affair in their usual capable manner, being assisted by ladies and girls of the parish.

SAILOR'S FIRST AID

Sailors' neckerchiefs were originally designed to be used as slings or tourniquets for battle injuries.

GAY COMEDY OF WARTIME

Joan Bennett and Franchot Tone Are Co-Starred in "The Wife Takes a Flyer"

Joan Bennett and Franchot Tone are co-stars of an intrigue-laden, action-filled romantic comedy "The Wife Takes a Flyer," which is the mid-week feature at the Capitol Theatre here today and tomorrow. Comedy and romance dominate this story of a Yankee daredevil in the Royal Air Force who lands in occupied territory of Holland and falls in love with a little Dutch girl.

In order to escape the Gestapo and outwit the rather dim-witted Nazi major who is also paying court to Miss Bennett, Tone poses as her soon-to-be divorced husband. His antics make a mockery of the divorce court although he does succeed in staying "married" to the girl. Having established himself as an eccentric, he manages, with the assistance of the girl, to learn secrets of vital military importance and to escape with both secrets and girl, to England.

The cast also includes Allan Joslyn, as the Nazi major who admits he gets food from every nation in Europe. Cecil Cunningham, as a shrewd, cynical old lady with a young heart, and Roger Clark, as a British agent within the Nazi lines.

MARRIED AT BURNS LAKE

Miss Edith Louise Gair Becomes Bride of Hilbert Maxwell Anderson

BURNS LAKE, Dec. 30—A wedding of great interest to the people of Palling and Forestdale districts took place at the United Church manse here on Saturday afternoon last when Edith Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gair of Forestdale, was united in marriage to Hilbert Maxwell Anderson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Anderson of Palling, Rev. Adam Crisp officiating.

Given in marriage by her father the bride looked charming in a floor-length gown of minuet blue sheer with embroidered bodice. Her veil of pale blue net was crowned with a wreath of white orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses, fern and gypsophilia, tied with white tulle.

The bridesmaid, Jean Gair, chose a gown of floor-length Monteray rose silk crepe with shirred bodice. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

The groomsman was Garnet Anderson.

The ceremony took place under an arch of white streamers caught up with silver bells and centred with a white wedding bell over which were fastened sprays of real Christmas holly.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Adam Crisp played "Con Amore."

Many relatives and friends attended the wedding.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was held in the Omineca Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Anderson are to reside at Palling.

SPORT CHAT

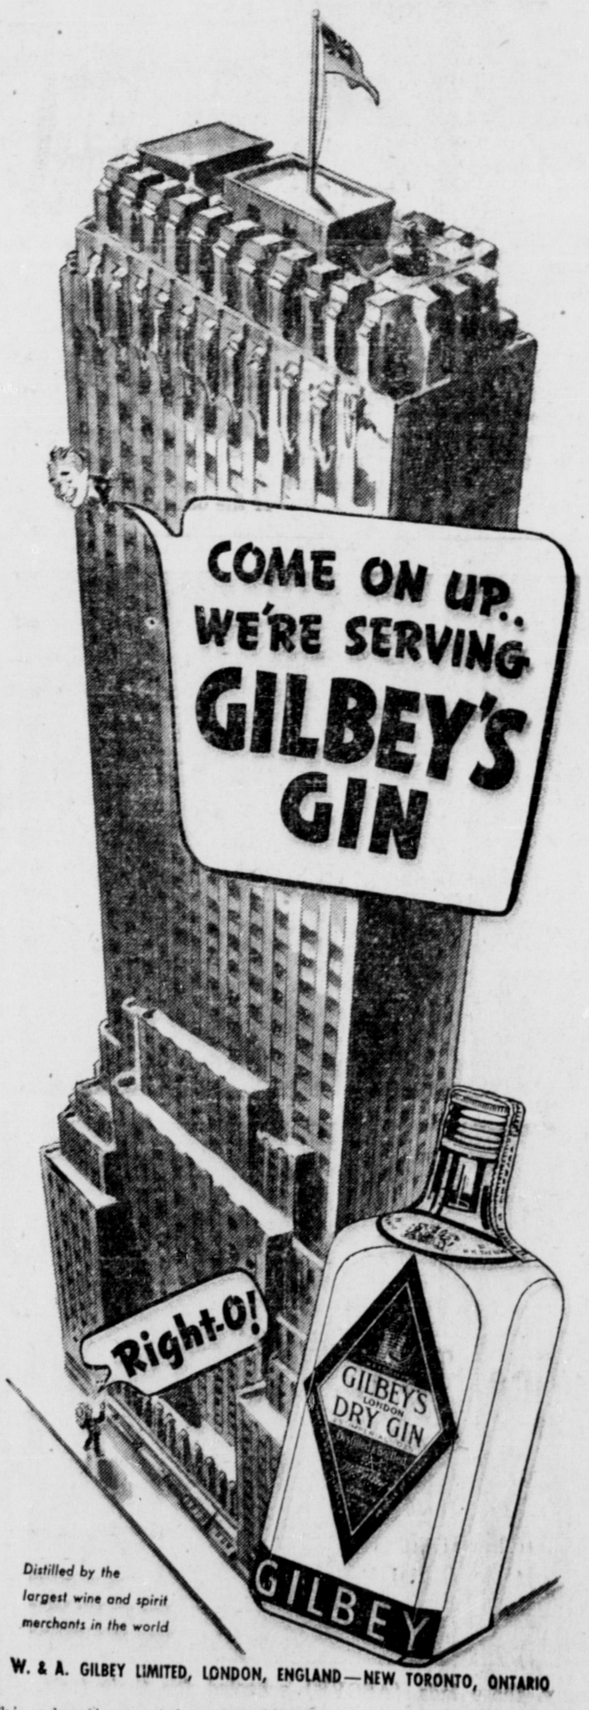

National League baseball records for 1937 gave Joe Medwick, St. Louis leftfielder, the circuit's most valuable player award. Medwick led league batting with a percentage of .374. He also won the fielding honors for outfielders with a .988 average and tied with Mel Ott, New York Giants, for most home runs, 31.

Bill Tilden, who cleaned up every tennis event in the world during his great career, announced his retirement as an amateur 12 years ago today. His professional debut was New York, February 18, 1931. He headed the United States ranking amateur list 10 years.

Xmas Concert At Burns Lake

Delightful Entertainment is Offered in United Church

BURNS LAKE, Dec. 30—On Tuesday evening of last week the United Church Sunday School held its Christmas concert, when a large number of people gathered to enjoy the program.

Three short plays were enacted by the Sunday School pupils entitled "And They Called His Name Jesus," "Christmas Symbols," and "Growler and the Ghost." Illustrated stories, "A Christmas Carol," and "The Other Wise Man," were given by Rev. and Mrs. Adam Crisp.

An amusing feature was a showing of "A Visit to Santa Claus," by Kenneth Taylor on his own miniature moving picture machine.

Instrumental selections were rendered by Edna Ostberg, Evelyn Nicholls, John Clark and Erling Berg, and Mrs. M. Nourse who also played for carol singing during the evening.

Blake Nobles, superintendent of Sunday School, acted as chairman.

The coming of Santa Claus completed the program with a treat for all.
