LOCAL GIRL IS MARRIED

In the presence of relatives and immediate friends, on Saturday evening the rectory on Fourth Avenue East was the scene of a quiet but impressive wedding when Miss Marjorie Theodora Silversides, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Silversides of Prince Rupert, became the bride of James Henry Shuman, youngest son of Mrs. A. Steele and the late P. Shuman of Vancouver. Very Rev. J. B. Gibson, dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral, officiated.

The bride was charming in a beige ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of tall-man roses.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Way attended the young couple.

After the ceremony, the young people returned to the home of the bride's parents on Third Avenue West where many friends had gathered to extend their best wishes.

FOOTBALL FANCIES

Can't it be that the dark horses of the Dominion Day Cup are the Navy? Tales are going around that the Sailors have been holding something back. Well in Murray and Eastman they have the safest pair of backs in the city and if the rest of the team can hold their end up—well perhaps the fair sex in the interior may yet see some matlows.

I often wonder if McNaught talks as much at home as he does on a football ground or is it the hen-pecked husband's safety valve and this is the only time he is able to open his mouth?

Rigby of the Air Force is one of the outstanding players in the League. Some of the other centre halves could take a few lessons from him in ball control and distribution. Fowler of the same team is welcome back after his absence.

OBSERVER.

Native Wedding Held Saturday

Miss Julia Benson Becomes Bride Of Benson Young At St. Andrew's Cathedral

A quiet wedding took place in St. Andrew's Cathedral on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 when Miss Dorothy Julia Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Benson of Kincolth, became the bride of Benson Young of Massett. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Jeffrey Benson. Mrs. Selma Russ of Greenville was matron of honor and Ernest Yeltatzie was groomsman. There were seven bridesmaids and little Misses Mercy Nelson and Mona Young were flower girls. Very Rev. James B. Gibson officiated.

Friends and relatives attended a banquet which was held later in the Commodore Cafe and a happy dance in Dave's Hall rounded out the celebration.
