Sea and Air Power As Well As Military Operations Will Defeat Japan-Speaks of Use

LONDON , May 11- "I have no doubt that British and United States sea power, overwhelming air power and vigorous military operations will lay them low," de-clared Prime Minister Winston GIVING TO Churchill in speaking of Japan in a world broadcast last night. The Prime Minister suggested, however, that the end would come much sooner if anything should happen to Hitler, "Tonight I give you a message of good cheer. Drive on tal errors." He promised Germany greater and more destructive British raids and promised that fitting measures would be used against Germany if Germany used gas against Russia.

Mr. Churchill showed how the tide of the war had now definitely turned in favor of Great Britain which no longer stood desperately
