Whifflets
From The Waterfront

Oolachans wre running higher up the Naas River this springs than ever known before. They were up the river within two miles of Canyon City, forty miles beyond Greenville beyond which they had seldom if ever been previously sighted. Sea lions were also seen further up the Naas River this spring than ever known before. They were disporting themselves in fresh water of the river beyond the tidal boundary of the stream.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, arrived in port at 10:45 yesterday morning from Stewart and other northern points, sailing at 1:30 p.m. for Vancouver and way points.

With a large list of passengers and, as usual, a big freight cargo C. N. R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Neil MacLean, arrived in port at 10:30 this morning from Ocean Falls and will sail at midnight for Ketchikan whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound.

SMITHERS

The Smithers picture theatre was filled to capacity and with many standing to see the war pictures which were exhibited here on Monday evening by Sgt. J. C. McKenzie who is travelling through the district showing these pictures. Many people were surprised to see the progress that has been made in Canada in producing machinery and equipment of war in the factories throughout the country and in ship-building and also in the numbers that are now enrolled in the Canadian forces. J. W. Turner, president of Bulkley Valley Branch of Canadian Legion, made a few introductory remarks and also at the close of the pictures he spoke on behalf of the Red Cross Society and asked for an all out support for the Red Cross when the collectors come around shortly.

Norman Tycho of the Royal Canadian Air Force was a visitor to his home here for a few days and left on Saturday morning for Ontario where he will continue his training as an observer in the Air Force. He is a son of Gust. Tycho, superintendent of Canadian National telegraph lines stationed at Smithers.

Freddie Watson left Smithers on Tuesday morning's train for Edmonton where he will start training in the Royal Canadian Air Force. Freddie will be hard to replace on local hockey, baseball and basketball teams, where he has played an important role.

Al. McKinnon of the staff of the Royal Bank at Smithers left on Tuesday's train for Prince Rupert enroute to Esquimalt where he will enter the Canadian Navy. Mr. McKinnon has been a very popular member of the Bank staff since he arrived in Smithers several years ago and will be much missed locally.
