Silver Standard Mines.

The mining property belonging to A. L. McHugh and Angus Stewart, known as the Silver Standard and comprising a group of twelve claims near Hazelton, is making considerable improvement as development is carried on. Shaft sinking on the ore body continues and at the present depth of over 150 feet a solid body of galena ore is exposed and the ore chute appears ti widen out as depth is attained. They have a modern plant of machinery and are employing about fourteen men.
