Romance of Western Desert Town Showing At Capitol Theatre

"Valley of the Sun," feature for Wednesday only at the Capitol Theatre, is based on a story by Clarence Budington Kelland and stars Lucille Ball and James Craig. Miss Ball has the colorful role of a restaurant keeper in a little desert town. Craig is the adventurous Army scout who is single-handedly trying to avert an Indian massacre, getting into trouble with the Army authorities while trying to straighten things out. He meets Miss Ball. Learning she is to marry an unscrupulous Indian agent, he decides to interfere and marry the girl himself.

This gives rise to plenty of drama between the two men, enhanced by the fact that the Apaches, tiring of the agent's double-dealing, prepare to raid the little town in revenge. Craig's attempts to save the agent's life, prevent the threatened massacre, and win the heroine, all make for thrills that feature the climax of the film.

Jean Dagger plays the scheming agent and the cast includes Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Billy Gilbert, Peter Whitney, Tom Tyler and Antonio Moreno.
