NOW PERHAPS A "DUST LIBEL."

In view of the famous "rain-libel" with which Vancouver, these benefits will be, but we are, envious of Prince Rupert's superb prospects, has plagued our city for some reason, certain tht they since ever it began to be, a serious question arises regarding the recent extraordinary fall of volcanic dust. What is Vancouver we possess of our future greatgoing to say about that? The prospect is alarming to say the ness is a long and grisly list of least of it. If a little rain (a smaller rainfall really than Van- dead. Let us stop and ask ourcouver's own) caused such an ill-to-kill rain libel, whatever will
