COMEDY IS SPARKLING

"Glamour Boy," With Jackie Cooper, Is Feature Picture at Capital Wednesday Only

"Glamour Boy," a comedy romance starring Jackie Cooper, is the feature picture on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for Wednesday only. Susanna Foster, one of the screen's new singing stars shares stellar honors with young Cooper and the supporting cast includes Walter Abel, William Demarest, Ann Gillis, Darryl Hickman, Maude Eburne and Jackie Searle.

Jackie Cooper plays the part of a has-been kid star who endeavours to stage a comeback by coaching a new child actor played by the ten year old Darryl Hickman. Cooper plays some furious studio politics in his fight to get back his big money. In the process he tangles with Jack Searle and managers to get Susanna put out of a big production. Then, when his conscience pricks him and he walks off the movie set to leave his career behind him, fun really starts. The story is said to be closely linked with Cooper's real history.

It is distinctly a young people's picture and is said to offer very refreshing entertainment.

Whifflets
From The Waterfront

Late April sees trolling operations started on the grounds tributary to Prince Rupert although not a great many of the power boats are so far out and the operations of these have been rather badly handicapped by unfavorable weather conditions. However, packing services into Prince Rupert have been instituted with Capt. John Clausen having three camps out—one at Squadaree on Stevens Island, one at Canoe Pass near Warks Canal and the third at Goose Bay on Dundas Island. The Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative has one camp out at Goose Bay, Dundas Island. The Rap I., Capt. Franklin Stewart, and Ada II., Capt. Anton Strand, are packing for Clausen and the Azurite, Capt. Sam Snidal, for the Co-operative. The prevailing price at this time is 15c. for red springs and 8c. for whites.

Two steamers of the Union Steamship line were in port today. The Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard arrived at 2 a.m. and sailed at 1:30 this afternoon for Vancouver, on regular schedule. As the Catala was leaving the Venture arrived from Stewart and other northern points, also sailing a short time later for Vancouver and waypoints.

Local news contributions should be in the Daily News office by 10 a.m. on the day following the event—preferably the night before, a letterbox in the door being there to receive copy. Local news not in by 10 a.m. runs the risk of not being published. We prefer to have news contributions typewritten neatly and double spaced, if possible. However, legible writing will do.

NEWS FROM EDMONTON

Actual construction of the Alaska Highway northwestward from Fort St. John through Fort Nelson is expected to commence within the next few days, according to word received in Edmonton. The route of the road has been pretty well decided upon by the United States Corps of Engineers which will build it. Areas of muskeg around Fort Nelson are presenting a problem. Following on the heels of troops building the pioneer road, a broad highway will be constructed.

Nearly five hundred men out of 2,500 required for Edmonton's reserve army units have enlisted since the recruiting drive got under way. Most popular unit appears to be the Petrol Park. Second Corps, which has obtained 130 recruits. The Second Battalion, Edmonton Fusiliers, has enlisted 100 men out of a required three hundred.

A brisk sale of property for home building purposes continues, the Edmonton city land department announces. The average cost of the new homes is running close to $2500.

Eddie Shore, famous professional hockey player, was a brief visitor in Edmonton at the first of last week. He was on his way to Daugh, fourteen miles northeast of the city, where he has a farm.

Agreement has been reached with the federal authorities whereby University of Alberta students who require assistance will receive grants from the provincial and federal governments, Premier William Aberhart has announced. Similar arrangements are being made with the Universities of British Columbia and Saskatchewan.

Miss Frances Newell and Miss Ann Brada Evans, both of Edmonton and both graduates of the University of Alberta, have enlisted as officers in the women's division of the Royal Canadian Air Force.

A two-man medical board consisting of officers from the Royal Norwegian army and air force has been in Edmonton to examine prospective recruits.

The woman's auxiliary salvage committee is appealing for about two hundred more workers in connection with the collection and sorting of salvage. The gathering of metal, rubber, bones, fats, glass, paper and rags is being to large extent concentrated upon.

The Edmonton Trades and Labor Council has adopted a resolution urging that women, replacing men in various industrial jobs, receive the same pay as the men they replace.

Horses and rigs are starting to make their appearance on Edmonton streets again as the number of automobiles shrinks due to tire and gasoline restrictions.

Operators who would drill for oil in the Edmonton district are experiencing some difficulty in securing equipment and, in some cases, the necessity of suspending operations at least temporarily is being faced.
