BIRTHDAY OF ROTARY

Local Club Comes of Age—Party Last Night Was Very Enjoyable Affair

The Prince Rupert Rotary Club celebrated its twenty-first birthday last night. The "coming of age" party took the form of a delightful dinner dance. About ninety persons were present, friends joining with Rotarians and their ladies for a delightful occasion. There were a number of novel features.

The toast to the Prince Rupert Rotary Club was proposed in a fine and appropriate manner by Major T. W. Sutherland. President P. H. Linzey responded. John Dybhavn gave a history of the club which proved of much interest

Other speakers of the evening included Co. F. W. Adams, whose presence lent a fitting international aspect to the affair; George L. Rorie, who represented the Prince Rupert Gyro Club, and Arnold Flaten, the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce.

The presentation of a great golden key to George C. Mitchell, the president-elect of the Rotary Club, lent a touch of levity to the proceedings.

A bouquet was presented to Mrs. Allan Landels, the bride of one of the members.

Another incident of the evening was the preparation of a large souvenir program, personally autographed by every person present, which was sent, together with a box of flowers, to H. F. Pullen, the last remaining charter member, who is ill in the Prince Rupert General Hospital and at whose inability to be present regret was expressed.

Music for dancing which delightfully rounded out a memorable evening was furnished by Mrs. Jean de Carlo's Orchestra. Lee M. Gordon was convenor of the affair and master of ceremonies for the evening.

Timely Recipes

BRAN MUFFINS

1½ cups flour.
1 cup bran.
2½ teaspoons baking powder.
½ teaspoon salt.
1 egg.
1 cup milk.
1 tablespoon butter.
½ cup chopped dates or raisins.

Mix and sift the flour, baking powder and salt. Mix in the bran and the chopped dates or raisins. Beat the raw egg and add the milk. Make a hollow in the flour mixture and pour in the beaten egg and milk, then the melted butter. Stir just enough to moisten dry ingredients. Turn into greased muffin pans and bake in a moderate oven (350 deg. to 400 F.) for about 25 minutes.
