ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT, Hostess

It seems that I went off the beam in reporting our children's party the other day. Mr. Gibson is the superintendent of the United Church Sunday School and the primary class in whose honor the party was given was Mrs. Joyce Green's. Assisting her in the games were Mrs. Seman and Geordie Wilkinson who did yeoman service in reading stories. Correction all OK, yes?

Mrs. Lee of the hut canteen has returned from a holiday in Edmonton. It would be a great kindness not to ask her whether she was train sick.

Another treat is in store this week-end (we shall be getting spoiled with all that is being done for us) when a camp concert party consisting of seven girls and five men rolls in from the south. What with bands and concert parties our own home-made concerts will have quite a time living up to these professionals. Or will they? It's always lots of fun to see someone you know on the stage.

Don't forget girls, there is a Grenadier dance tonight at the Armories. Hostesses and chaperones will meet at the "Y" as usual. The boys are all expecting a good turn out of dance partners so come along girls!

And talking of dances the United Services Organization has extended an invitation to all our hostesses, Red Cross Corps and the Cambrai Chapter I.O.D.E. to attend a special American Thanksgiving Eve dance next Wednesday. Several chaperones will be in attendance and everyone will meet at the "Y" where there will be conveyances. The American Thanksgiving is a much bigger holiday with them than ours is with us and it commemorates the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers on Plymouth Rock. It comes the third Thursday in November and is always celebrated as a real family holiday when all who can meet together. For that reason the boys who are here may be feeling just a bit more lonesome and homesick than usual so wear your brightest smiles and cheeriest manners.
