ZEST begins at breakfast

"BONG! BONG!... Come and get it!" What sweeter sound! Especially when there's the Kellogg's flavour to start off the day. And a bowl of Kellogg's Corn Flakes, with milk and a little sugar, gives needed food energy too... enough, for instance, to walk over 3½ miles! Active people everywhere vote for the "Self-Starter" Breakfast. Get some Kellogg's Corn Flakes today! Comes in two convenient sizes. Made by Kellogg's in London, Canada.

THE "SELF-STARTER" BREAKFAST!

Mrs. Shelford Darton returned to the city yesterday from a holiday visit in Vancouver and Victoria and also on Lulu Island where she was the guest of Mrs. J. W. McAuley, formerly of this city.

WEDDING AT BURNS LAKE

Miss Alice Nelson Becomes Bride Of Alford Harrison

BURNS LAKE, —July 11:— A wedding of great interest to the people of the lakes district took place in the United Church manse at Burns Lake on Tuesday morning when Alice Mary Nelson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson of Wistaria, became the bride of Alford James Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harrison, also of Wistaria.

The living room was decorated for the occasion with pink and white peonies and the ceremony was performed under a pink arch, centred with a white wedding bell, Rev. Adam Crisp officiating.

The bride was attractively gowned in rose silk crepe and wore a tucked turban in white and carried white gloves. Her corsage was of pale pink carnations and sweet peas.

Miss Margaret Caldwell was bridesmaid and Myles Shelford was groomsman.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Adam Crisp played "O Promise Me."

The young couple, who represent two well known pioneer families, are to make their residence at Wistaria.

Tonight's train, due from the East at 6:30, was reported this morning to be on time.

H. L. Hayne, engineer in charge of Skeena River highway construction work, leaves tonight for Vancouver.

Mrs. Sirman Robinson and daughters. Jean and Joan, of Charleston, South Carolina, arrived in the city this week to pay a visit with Mrs. Robinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Eckerman. Mrs. Robinson is the former Henrietta Eckerman and many years ago lived in Prince Rupert. In about two weeks' time, Mr. and Mrs. Eckerman are expecting a visit from their younger daughter, Mrs. Fred Sumter of Albany, Georgia, and her young daughter.

Some Contents

There were two pages of sports news, the Army life panel "Strictly Private," a couple of comic strips, a column of poetry from soldiers' pens. The entire back page was devoted to pictures (that particular issue had a "scoop" of which the staff was especially proud — an AP radiophoto from Washington showing President Roosevelt registering for selective service.

There was and is much news of the troops themselves. The "Stars and Stripes" gave the troops their first published word that they could draw their pay every two weeks and were permitted to visit London on leave.
