

Fifth Brother to Join Colors
Alfred Peters Is Member Of
Pioneer Fort George Family

Fifth brother to join the colors is Alfred Peters, aged 21, son of the late E. S. Peters, Sheriff of Cariboo and one of the most prominent figures of the Fort George district, enlisted at Prince Rupert this week. Alfred, who has been employed for six months at the Prince Rupert Dry Dock, visited Fraser Lake two weeks ago, having left his ranch at Vancouver to proceed to camp for service with the Royal Canadian Service Corps. Having been attested yesterday, he will leave on Friday evening's train for the interior.

FRANCE NOT CONQUERED

French Leader in London Assures Hearers of Coming Activities

LONDON, April 29 (CP)—France will fight again in this war Prof. Denis Saurat told a meeting of the French Institute in London.

Though 1,500,000 French soldiers are prisoners of war, there are 4,000,000 more in France, he said. They will not remain unarmed forever.

Saurat asserted those men will be all the more formidable for having a great account to settle with the Nazis who made them suffer, deprived their wives and children of food, imprisoned and executed many of their fellow-countrymen.

The speaker said a re-armed France will have an important mission after the war. He recalled that less than 10 years after Waterloo and the crumbling of France a French in 1824 had been charged with keeping order in Spain.

The Free French movement, Saurat, concluded, received its greatest support in France because it was symbolic of a people still resisting and fighting to regain world confidence.

RESULT OF PLEBISCITE

Vote In City Fifteen Percent Higher Than General Election
—Elsewhere in Riding Less

In Skeena electoral district with manpower plebiscite results known 77 out of 118 polls figures are:

Yes	5,804
No	5,804
Yes" votes amount to about 71 percent of the total of 8,219 so far counted and "No" votes about 29 percent.

It is expected that the total vote in Skeena electoral district will be found to have been about 8,000 or 8,700, approximately 500 less votes than were cast in the federal election of 1940.

The Prince Rupert city vote was about 15 percent heavier than in the 1940 federal election but the vote in most other areas in the electoral district is considerably less.

Polls reporting since yesterday have been as follows:

	Yes	No
Tulsequah	47	17
Bella Bella	70	21
Digby	31	30
Wark Channel	1	4
Sandspit	14	0

Mrs. Ormiston Laid at Rest

Many Friends Gathered at Pentecostal Tabernacle Yesterday For Service

The Pentecostal Tabernacle on Sixth Avenue West was crowded yesterday afternoon by friends desirous of paying their final tributes of esteem and respect to the memory of the late Mrs. Maria Ormiston on the occasion of her funeral. Rev. W. J. Friesen, the pastor, officiated, assisted by Daniel Scherk. Mrs. Friesen sang a vocal solo, "Where We Never Grow Old," and Miss Swana Olafson presided at the organ to accompany the hymns which were "Fade, Fade Each Earthly Joy," and "The Last Mile of the Way."

Following the service interment was made in Fairview Cemetery. Pallbearers were G. E. Phillipson, Daniel Scherk, George Phillipson, Neil McNaught, Charles Toombs and Norman McKay.

Olof Hanson Jr., who has been on a brief business trip to Vancouver, arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert this morning and will proceed to Smithers by the evening train.

British Officials Figure Drop of 75 Per Cent in Private Motors

LONDON, April 29 (CP)—Motor trade experts estimate wartime restrictions on gasoline have taken practically 75 per cent of Britain's peacetime private cars off the road. Before the war they numbered some 2,000,000.

Australia Is Reinforced

Roosevelt Speaks—

AMERICANS REALLY IN FIGHT NOW

Forces Are Battling With Enemy All Over World—Promises China—Threatens Vichy

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 29.—In a radio address to the nation last night, President Franklin D. Roosevelt said that several hundred thousand United States fighting men were now serving abroad. Air detachments of the United States Army would soon be fighting in Europe. United States warships were now in combat in the Mediterranean and American troops were in the Near and Far East. The United Nations forces were gathering against the Axis.

There are two other brothers—Alex Peters, who is holding down the farm at Fraser Lake, and Keith, who is employed at the Fraser Lake Sawmills operated by M. M. Connally M.L.A.

Sisters are Mrs. McChesney of Prince Rupert and Mrs. N. S. McChesney of Fraser Lake.

Alfred was married a year ago to Galene Gerhardi of Fort Fraser.

Like the most of the members of the family, he was born in Prince George where Sheriff Peters made his headquarters for many years.

The four other brothers of Alfred Peters already in colors are: Lance Corporal Harry Peters with the Second Searchlight Battery at Prince Rupert.

Gunner Ernest Peters with the Royal Canadian Artillery in England.

Private Leslie Peters and Lance Corporal Peters, both with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps at Camp Borden.

Harry is twenty-seven years of age. Ernest 25, Leslie 23 and Frank nineteen.

Mr. Roosevelt had high praise for the Russian war effort. The Soviet had destroyed more enemy arms than all the rest of the Allies put together, he declared.

The President warned Vichy

France that the United States would fight any Axis attempt to use French ports of France in any part of the world as military bases.

Mr. Roosevelt called upon Americans for self-denial. The price of victory would be "hard work, sorrow and blood." All Americans must necessarily feel the effects of war.

The chief executive dealt to considerable extent with the proposed anti-inflationary program.

Progress in construction of new tonnage and ship repairing was steadily maintained despite inclement weather, shorter period of daylight, and blackout regulations.

"This progress is reflected in the heavy demands on the steel works for mild-steel plates and sections, most of which are going to the shipbuilding yards under the system of priorities in operation," Mr. Johnston said.

"No figures of launching are available but, while production in shipbuilding and engineering reached high levels in 1941, new records of output at the Scottish centres are anticipated for 1942.

Production is limited only by the capacity of the yards and the supply of skilled labor. The lighter branches of the engineering industries have shown considerable expansion of their activities, including the making of airplane parts and instruments. In these branches a high proportion of women now is engaged. The machine tool industry of Glasgow and other parts of Scotland are capable of large output, but they have not been able to meet all requirements.

RED'S IN ADVANCE

Important Headway Being Made By Soviet Forces In Spite Of Nazi Resistance

KUIBSHEV, April 29: —An important Russian advance of forty-five miles in four days was reported today in front line dispatches to Kuibyshev. The dispatches said the Red Army had successfully crossed a big river in the face of fierce defensive action by the Nazi air force.

In this and other sectors the Germans are said to have intensified aerial operations greatly in a desperate attempt to prevent bridge repairs with the hope that rising spring floods would hamper the Soviet advance.

KIEL BASE IS BOMBED

Was Target For Heavy Raid Last Night by Royal Air Force—York Visited by Luftwaffe

LONDON, April 29: (CP) — The Royal Air Force set fire to the great Nazi naval base at Kiel last night while another force attacked the German warship haven at Trondheim, Norway, for the second consecutive night. In announcing the assaults which rounded out a full week of big scale bombings of German continental positions, the Air Ministry said that other overnight raids were directed against Low Country airfields.

Attacks of the Royal Air Force had kept up yesterday as "largest single units over to attack occupied France" swept out toward Calais. Smaller flights had already returned from dawn raids.

At Trondheim it was said the Germans were building an Atlantic battle fleet here. Royal Air Force planes accordingly concentrated not on the battleship Tirpitz and the ten thousand ton cruiser Prinz Eugen which they saw at Trondheim but on land installations the
