Third Victory Loan...

The sale of Canada's Third Victory Loan commences this coming Monday. Confident that Prince Rupert people appreciate the vital necessity of this loan being a success and convinced that this is a most easy way to support the war effort and at the same time protect one's own future, we unhesitatingly forecast that this campaign, increased though the quota may be, will be just as great a success as the two previous ones have been. We really do not believe it is necessary for us to try to persuade our readers of the desirability in every way of buying Victory Bonds, even if we have to go without something else to do so, but, on the eve of the campaign, we might offer a few appropriate thoughts on the matter.

When an individual, either as an enemy agent or as an honest person who believes what he says, whispers that Canada's Victory Loan bonds will not be cashed after the war, he does not go far enough. To be consistent, and fair, he should add that any future condition in this country which would cancel out the value of Victory Bonds would also make all life insurance policies worthless. He should explain that savings accounts would be wiped out. He should point out that all dollar bills, five dollar bills, or any other kind of currency, including silver coins, would be just something to toss into the ash can.

Victory Bonds cannot be set aside as something separate and apart from other obligations of this, our country. They are just as sacred a "promise to pay" as the one dollar bills we carry in our pockets.

These bonds are held by the people of Canada. And the only way through which they could be repudiated would be by a decision of the people of Canada not to pay themselves back.

The pessimist is out of order in Canada. The assets and resources of this country which back up these loans from the people are billions and billions of dollars in excess of the loan totals. Even with all the borrowing that has had to be done since the start of the war in 1939, the interest cost of Canada's total debt to this date, is only 189 million dollars a year.

Canadians can and will meet indebtedness of that size. Fifty years from now our children and our children's children will likely smile quietly at the small financial problem which we thought was so big.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT, Hostess

Poor 'old Dutch our Y kitten, now practically a cat, is feeling the pinch of war. Until now he has been given a diet of special cat food, interspersed with what odd bits and pieces of food the kind-hearted garrison cook brought him. But now there is no cat food to be had and he is struggling along on a patent dog food which is made, the legend on the carton runs, so that your dog may have a well balanced food till the war is won. So if Dutch takes to barking we'll know the food is all it's cracked up to be.

Hector Mackenzie, who is Y.M.C.A. sports organizer for the Prince Rupert area, tells me that basketball will make its debut at the Armory next Wednesday and, by the number of teams in the league, basketball fans will be in for a bang-up season. Here is the line-up: Midlands, Navy, Grenadiers, Co-op, High School, Dry Dock, Yanks, Headquarters and the Yanks Transport.

Glad to see Telegraphist Cliff Humford back with us again. He was so glad to get away but I understand, someone told me, I heard, in fact I have it on good authority, that he "volunteered" to come back to Prince Rupert. The old town has its charms—or in his case I wonder if it's charmer?

Petty Officer Allan Bird, who was with us almost all last winter, is quite ill in Esquimalt. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

There's a new YMCA man out in Terrace. Arnold Ducklin is his name. Remember what I said about them getting handsomer and handsomer? Well, you just should see Arnold. My lands! The girls in Terrace have all the luck.

Carlton Clay, who is arranging the Victory Loan concert in the Capitol Theatre on Sunday night as well as acting as compere, has a first-rate program to view.

Here is the program of Y.M.C.A. Y.W.C.A. activities at the hut for the week of October 18-24:
Sunday—Regular Padre's concert cancelled because of Victory Loan concert at the Capitol.

Tuesday—Y's wives whist drive in the family lounge (afternoon).
Movie (evening).

Wednesday—Dance.

Thursday—Service wives club in the family lounge (afternoon), music and movies (evening), Grenadiers company dance—Junior Hostesses, Women's Red Cross Corps and Cambrai Chapter I. O. D. E. to meet at Y. Chaperones, Mrs. Brass and Mrs. Smith.

Friday—Bingo.

Saturday—Movie.

LIFE INSURANCE IS THE PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

PROTECTION

...for the people
...by the people

IN peace time, peace of mind goes deep. Yet you can often see it in a face. You can usually tell when a man or woman has a sense of security. You can see it in the springy step of a doctor in Vancouver. You can see it in the calm eyes of a farmer on the Prairies. You can feel it in the firm grip of a miner in Sudbury. You can hear it in the unruffled voice of a school teacher in Quebec. You can sense it in the quiet heartiness of a store clerk in Halifax.

Men and women who enjoy the financial security of life insurance are typical Canadians... if you can call four million people typical. Some are young, some are middle-aged, some are old. Most of them are wage-earners and people of moderate means. Life insurance came into existence because these people needed protection, and its assets in Canada... now over two billion dollars... are owned by the people it serves. Each one of you protects the other, and as you protect each other, so you protect yourselves and the nation.

Right now, peace of mind and protection depend on victory. That is why you should work, save and lend to the limit of your ability. Put every dollar you can into War Savings is the advice of your life insurance companies who have invested millions of your premium savings in war loans to buy the tools of victory.

Church Supper Is Enjoyable

Happy Affair for Congregation and Friends of First Presbyterian Church

A delightful informal get-together of members of the congregation and friends of First Presbyterian Church took place last night at the church parlors in the form of a supper followed by a happy program of music and speeches. The affair was under the general convenship of Mrs. James Simpson and was fully enjoyed by all present who expressed the hope that it would only be the first of further similar events.

The meal was a really splendid one, the blessing for which was asked by the pastor, Rev. A. F. MacSween, who acted as chairman for the evening. Rev. C. A. Wright, pastor of First Baptist Church, and Rev. J. A. Donnell, pastor of First United Church, both spoke humorously in bringing the greetings of their churches.

The program included selections by the choir with J. A. Teng and Miss Betty Wood as soloists, vocal duet by Mrs. William Martin and Bert Martin; vocal solos by Miss Barbara Teng, and a vocal quartette by the Merry Matelots of the Navy consisting of Telegraphist Maintenance Gordon Wilson, Signaller Allan Hinks and Able Seamen Don Kehn and Norman Hodge. Community singing, under the leadership of James Bremner, was also enjoyed.

The committee assisting Mrs. Simpson as general convener consisted of Mrs. James Hadden, Mrs. Harry Calderwood, Mrs. J. B. MacKay, Mrs. M. M. Lamb, Mrs. R. Roberts, Mrs. M. McLeod, Mrs. John Bremner and Mrs. J. A. Teng with members of the board of managers—Harry Calderwood, J. A. Teng, E. J. Smith and James Bremner—assisting in serving.

ARE WE AN EASY PREY?

Our way of living, our ideals and our democracy—according to our enemies—made us a soft and easy prey to their envy and their greed. Our enemies want our lands, our resources, our homes. Should we value them any less than they? They are willing to fight in order to take from us the things we cherish. Are we equally willing to bear the full burden of war to retain the things we hold?

GLIMPSE THE FUTURE

In the comradeship and common bond of mutual danger, in the striving for equality of effort and of sacrifice for war, there has arisen a growing realization that we are a full-grown and free people—proud of our Canadian heritage, unshaken in our belief for its future. Out of this war, as we rebuild on sorely-ruined foundations, there can arise on this continent a civilization second-to-none in all the world.

Responsibilities GO WITH RIGHTS

In no other country in the world do citizens enjoy more wholly the privileges and rights of free democracy than do we in Canada.

But the very nature of democracy that creates those rights, creates the responsibility of maintaining them.

HUNDREDS of thousands of young Canadians have decided that Canada is worth fighting for. We other hundreds of thousands at home MUST decide that Canada is worth WORKING for—SAVING for—LENDING for.
