Congratulations, Ratepayers!...

The Prince Rupert Ratepayers' Association presents a full slate of candidates for the offices of mayor, aldermen and school trustees at the forthcoming civic election. The risk of any of the offices going vacant by default is eliminated. After all, there is an encouraging interest displayed in civic affairs although th nomination committee of the Ratepayers' Association did have a rather difficult time obtaining suitable material. The effort was, however, worthwhile and the committee is to be congratulated on the quality of the candidates who have been induced to stand. The candidates themselves are entitled to appreciation on finally giving way to their sense of civic responsibility and duty by agreeing to assume the duties of civic office which in the cases of most of them, no doubt, is being done at the expense of their own personal time and business which might well have full claim upon them.

Interest in any civic election always, of course, centres upon the mayoralty and for this office the Ratepayers' Association has made a fortunate choice in person of William M. Watts, prominent and successful young local business man. For some years now Mr. Watts has taken a keen and leading interest in civic affairs and, since he has served with success as president of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and the Prince Rupert Ratepayers' Association, it cannot be said he is without modern experience and knowledge of the current political situation. He will not be deluded about the responsibilities he will be called upon to accept and the problems he will have to face if elected to the chief magistracy Among the candidates for the aldermanic and school terial.

boards is also to be found competent and versatile ma-

There is no official intimation as yet of other candidates who may enter the field. Now that the first move has been made, it is to be expected that others may be expected. In any case, it is gratifying to be assured through the action of the Ratepayers' Association last night that there is now worthy talent definitely available to take charge of affairs when Prince Rupert, after nearly ten years of commissionership, returns to the position of municipal autonomy.

Well, well, and what did you think of our "Dutch's" initial literary efforts? I was very proud of him. He has a style that is whimsical and full of feline fancy. We must have more anon. Thank you, Dutch

Another well attended meeting of the Service Wives' Club on Thursday afternoon saw several new members enrolling. The work on the bags for the hospital patients was finished and now they have to be filled. (And the bags are very generous in size so they will take some filling). The inter-club raffle prize was brought by Mrs. MacCallum and won by Mrs. Huff. Tea was served by Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Muirhead.

Next Thursday there will be a bridge-whist, the proceeds of which are to go towards the children's Christmas party to be held December 19 at the "Y". Any service children of ten and under whose names aren't in had better see that Mummy attends to it right away. It's awfully important!

There will be two concerts at the Capitol Theatre on Sunday afternoon and evening. Tickets are needed for the evening show only. All tickets are to be got from unit headquarters.

Geordie (Island Forts) Wilkinson left the following sports report with me:

"On Wednesday evening December 2, a three-hour volley ball struggle was played at Fort Frederick. Five teams were entered comprising Recruits No. 1, Recruits No. 2, Sergeants, Searchlight Section and Grenadiers. The final game was played between Searchlights Section and Sergeants with the Searchlights coming out on top. The personnel of this team is Bdr. Moffat, L/Bdr. Clark, Gnr. Bateman, Gnr. Bowlanger, Gnr. Mosson, and Gnr. Woolley. If there is a team ready to take on these Fort Frederick sharpshooters let Geordie Wilkinson of the "Y" know about it
