Local Halibut Fleet Lining Up Its Own Curtailment Plan—Fishing for Black Cod Out of Here.

While nothing has yet been done in the way of negotiating an agreement on the matter with the Puget Sound fleet which has shown no disposition to take the question up, the Prince Rupert halibut fleet is considering a plan of its own for the regulation of catches and landings in the interest of market stabilization. Details of the plan, providing for staggered departure of the fleet and lay-overs between trips, are now being perfected and will be put into effect, it is hoped, as the fishing season opens April 15 or less than two weeks hence. Members of the Canadian Halibut Marketing Board—W. H. Brett, Joseph Kilby and Anton Dybhavn—will be leaving Monday afternoon on the Princess Norah to discuss curtailment measures with Vancouver fleet. An endeavor is being made to have Seattle fleet representatives there also to discuss a general plan.

Several black cod catches have been landed at Prince Rupert during the past few days. The fish has been landed to the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.

Armour Salvage Co.'s power tug Daly, Capt. Henry Hansen, returned to port on Wednesday from Vancouver, having brought north a scowload of lumber for the E. J. Ryan Contracting Co. to be used in Wartime Housing construction.

RED CROSS News Notes

Rusty, the small Burns Lake dog who has collected so many dollars for the Red Cross through his appeals to patriotic dogs, goes poetical this week. He isn't much of a poet, but he evidently feels that verse might attract attention of more dogs to this week's appeal. The list of dog's names on the roll of Red Cross contributors has steadily grown longer. So far, Quebec dogs head the list in number of contributors to Rusty's Fund for the Red Cross, care of the Royal Bank, Burns Lake, British Columbia.

Bow wow! Come on, you dogs,
And send your dollars in.
You eat square meals each day,
You neither toil nor spin.
By giving to the Red Cross,
You'll help our soldiers win.

If we don't help our country,
Then we'll just be classed as drones.
Our dollars will buy dressings
To relieve our hurt boys' groans.
Many things are rationed,
But they haven't rationed bones!

We can't nip the Nippies,
Or sink our teeth in Hitler's pants.
We can't cross the ocean,
And try to rescue poor, dear France.
But, dogs who want to help,
Give to the Red Cross—there's your chance!

Shower For Miss Josephine Gay Is Delightful Affair

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Ole Anderson and Mrs. John Carpenter were joint hostesses at the home of the former at a delightful miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Josephine Gay who is to be married shortly.

The evening was spent in playing whist and Chinese checkers. Prize winners were Miss Josephine Gay and Mrs. Mitchell Gay at whist, and Mrs. Dave Deane at checkers.

At midnight a delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses after which a beautifully decorated basket of many useful gifts was presented to the bride-to-be.

Those present were the Mesdames O. Anderson, P. Anderson, A. Anderson, J. Gay Mitchell Gay, W. Garlick, D. Deane, J. Valderhaug, M. Valderhaug, H. Hanson, G. Pettersen, F. Hemmons, J. Carpenter, G. Stromdahl, C. Strand, O. Johanson and the Misses Josephine Gay, Isobel Gay, Ingrid Anderson, Britta Johanson, Mae Middleton, Rose Wynne, Bea Mostad and Eileen Hemmons.

Shower Held Last Evening

Pleasant Affair in Honor of Miss Lillian Thompson.

Miss Lillian Thompson was honored Friday evening when Mrs. Tom Kelsey and Mrs. James Comer were co-hostesses with Mrs. William Barton at a miscellaneous shower at the latter's home.

The rooms were prettily decorated in pink and white and the table was centred with a figurine of a bride from which streamers with gifts attached flowed gracefully.

Games were enjoyed and a quiz contest won by Miss Iowthy Thompson.

The invited guests were the Misses Verby McDonald, Olga Zalisko, Emily Christopher, Ruby Skulurud, Dorothy Thompson, Geraldine Hanley, Irene Hess, Elsie Lund and Mesdames Keron, J. Thompson, Lund, J. Campbell.

TOO MUCH BOOZE

Editor, Daily News:

I have been in Prince Rupert at different times for many years. It used to be a fine place in which to live and it could still be a grand place to live if the booze and hoodlums and slugging etc. etc. could be stopped. This should have been done long ago and this city made a safe place for women and girls and also men who want to be sobeer and decent. I think the Rotary Club resolution is just right and should be signed by every decent thinking citizen in Prince Rupert. Too much booze is all the trouble.

FOR LESS BOOZE.

MOUNTAINS TO BLAME

Regional Engineer of Broadcasting Corporation Suggests This May Be Reason for Bad Reception Here.

Mountain ranges in the vicinity of Prince Rupert are now being blamed for the poor radio reception in this city. N. R. Olding, regional engineer of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation for British Columbia, so writes to D. C. McRae, chairman of the radio committee of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. Tests made during the past winter, Mr. Olding writes, have led to the belief that the location of these ranges are a contributing factor to the poor reception here.

Mr. Olding says that he has never lost sight of radio reception problems at Prince Rupert and states that considerable progress has been made although "admittedly inadequate."

When the new Canadian Broadcasting Corporation network extension with installation of small transmitter units at Williams Lake, Quesnel, Wells and Prince George has been set up, it may be possible, Mr. Olding suggests, to provide temporary service by short wave from Prince George or some other point on the network towards Prince Rupert.

Tonight's train, due to arrive from the East at 11 o'clock, was reported this morning to be two hours and fifteen minutes late, bringing it in at 1:15 a.m.

STORY OF BAD MEN

Thrilling Saga of Bandit Heroes Of Old West Coming To Capitol Theatre Next Week

"Bad Men of Missouri," colorful story of the daring escapades of the Younger brothers, one of the toughest trio of bandits in America's turbulent history, is the feature picture for the screen of the Capitol Theatre here at the first of next week.

Dennis Morgan, Wayne Morris and Arthur Kennedy play the parts of notorious gang of bank and train robbers who terrorized Missouri, Iowa and Kansas with their bank and train robberies.

Returning from the Civil War in which they served with the defeated Confederate army, the brothers find their father murdered and their homes and most of their neighbors' in the hands of the local banker. Jane Wyman, one of the brother's girl friends, tries to dissuade them from becoming criminals but they are determined to avenge their father's death. One of the brothers is killed and another is charged with the murder of the sheriff. Crime after crime follows but, finally, the career of lawlessness comes to an end in a completely surprising manner.

Other members of the cast in the actionful picture are Mary Hathaway, Victory Jory and Sam McDaniel.

Roy Burton, charged with retaining stolen property, the article being a woman's purse, was fined $10, with option of three days' imprisonment, by Magistrate W. D. Vance in city police court Saturday. The fine was paid.
