"Week-end In Havana." Technicolor Feature, Showing at Capitol Theatre This Week-end

Tropical music, catchy Cuban rhythms, warm-blooded senoritas, dark-eyed romeos are combined in the film-musical "Week-end in Havana" which is showing today and Saturday at the Capitol Theatre here. With Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda, John Payne and Cesar Romero cast in the starring roles, the film is set in the capital city of Cuba and shows Havana with all its beauty in technicolor.

Miss Faye portrays a New York sales-girl who has carefully budgeted herself for several years in order to take a Havana vacation. When her ship is caught on a reef she refuses to sign her release to a shipping company until she has actually had the vacation. The company's representative, John Payne, postpones his wedding to make sure she has a grand time and, of course, complications

Carmen Miranda is featured as a night club dancer in Havana and does a spectacular new number—"The Nango."

Five new tunes were especially written for this picture-"When I Love I Love," "The Man with the Lollypop Song," "A Week-end in Havana," "Tropical Magic," "The Others in the cast of "Week-end in Havana" include Cobina Wright jr., George Barbier, Sheldon Leonard, Leonid Kinskey, Chris-Pin Martin and Billy Gilbert.
