The problem of locating a suitable place and also obtaining sufficient help was acute but there was no doubt that any such effort would be successful in raising funds for the Civic Centre.

In discussing the local situation,: it was felt that while priority could not be expected immediately there was hope that conditions might be more favorable within a! few months and the committee would continue to make representation to the authorities to effect the early construction of the project. In view of the healthy financial condition the possibility of adding the swimming pool to the original plans was also mentioned.

G. T. German presented the Treasurer's report showing a bank balance of $16,000 with which the committee decided to buy Victory Bonds registered in the name of the association. It was also decided to have the already held bonds for $6,000 registered for the associa-

The committee expressed regret; at having to accept the resignation of Mr. German, who is leaving the city. A. S. Nickerson accepted the appointment of treasurer for the association until the general meeting which is to be held on the third Thursday in January.

The resignation of O. C. Young from the association was also accepted. Mr. Young was the citizens' representative and also vice-presi-
