Landings of Halibut Speeding Up All Along the Coast—Volume at Prince Rupert Climbing Up Towards Year Ago

American and Canadian fleets landed 14,745,866 pounds of halibut through the six-week period from the start of the 1942 season to May 31, according to an announcement made yesterday by the International Fisheries Commission. The Canadian catch was 4,128,458 pounds, American vessels accounting for the balance. There has been a marked increase in landings just recently following the modification of some of the voluntary curtailment which has had the effect of speeding up the fishing.

Landings at the port of Prince Rupert up to and including yesterday totalled 4,813,650 pounds for the season to date as compared with 5,512,700 pounds at a corresponding date last year, showing that, after the slow start, the landings are now beginning to climb rapidly towards the 1941 volume. The Canadian landings so far this year have reached a total of 1,730,350 pounds as against 2,283,400 pounds in 1941 while the American aggregate in 1942 to date is 3,083,300 pounds in comparison with 3,229,000 pounds. During the week ending yesterday the landings amounted to 955,550 pounds comprising 338,050 pounds Canadian and 617,500 pounds American fish. Prices during the past week showed a marked improvement. For Canadian fish the high price of the week was 16.7c and 14c which the Robert B. received for 18,500 pounds and the low 14.8c and 13c which the Helen II was paid for 14,000 pounds. The high price of the week for American fish was 16c and 14c paid the Sandra I for 8,000 pounds and the low 14c and 13c which the Bonanza and Fay received for 34,000 and 40,000 pounds respectively.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. R. C. McGeachy, arrived in port at 5:20 yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 4:30 this morning from the south and sailed at 8:30 on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Most of the revenue at last year's carnival was derived from the games, profits being shown to the extent of $2,503.26 from these. The queen contest for the sale of tickets showed a profit of $1,712.90. Admissions at the door totalled $448.95. Sports showed a loss of $13.35.

Mrs. Frank Knott Suffers Accident

Painfully Burned On Tuesday Night And Is Now Being Treated at General Hospital

Mrs. Frank Knott is a patient in the Prince Rupert General Hospital suffering from painful and quite extensive burns to legs, arms and face sustained on Tuesday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. K. Christenson, Fourth ... East. She is progressing favorably.

Mrs. Knott was engaged in cooking with a pot of grease on an electric stove when the grease took fire. In endeavouring to throw the blazing pot outside her clothing took fire and she had the further misfortune at this time to fall down a basement stairway. J. P. Moller, engaged in painting at the house, and D. G. Borland, a neighbor, rushed to her assistance and put out the flames which were enveloping her.

Some damage was also done to the interior of the kitchen by the fire.

WRESTLING LAST NIGHT

Dido Gurvich's Show Draks Fair-sized and Appreciative Audience

Dido Gurvich's sock and squirm card drew a good-sized and appreciative crowd to the Empress Club Hall last night. Featuring wrestling of the "everything goes" type, there was plenty of action with play-acting and clowning as well but it was good entertainment and the crowd was well satisfied with the bill.

The feature squirming event of the evening was a scheduled six rounder between George Bunka, 185 pounds, of Prince Rupert dry dock, and Jimmy Britt, 175 pounds, of Ontario. "Bad Boy" George was the winner by two falls to one with the end in the fourth round. The action included what looked like punching, kicking, biting, hair pulling and such misdemeanors by George. Jimmy too got his mad up and Referee Lefty Ferguson after one of the falls had the ring full of sailors, wrestlers, principals, sailors and others with two fights going on at once. Lefty Gardner, former champion of Saskatchewan, challenged the winner.

Mike Christiansen, 170 pounds substituted for Don Wares and got plenty mad at the end of four rounds when Tiger Goldstick was declared the winner because Mike failed to fulfil the terms of the handicap by making two falls within the four rounds. Goldstick weighed only 145 pounds.

In a boxing bout Kid Charlton and Pat Dyke went four rounds to a draw.

A bout of blindfold boxing between five boys was the curtain raiser.

Joan Bennett and Franchot Tone In "She Knew All The Answers" At Capitol

Both Joan Bennett and Franchot Tone, who come to the Capitol Theatre here at the first of this week in "She Knew All the Answers," are said to make refreshingly different types of appearances in the hectic comedy feature. Miss Bennett is a wise-cracking young Broadway night club star who goes to work on Tone, playing the part of an ultra - conservative stiff - necked young Wall Street broker.

Miss Bennett's efforts to marry a young millionaire playboy with the consent and approval of his millionaire guardian finally are rewarded with success but it is the guardian and not the playboy she marries. John Hubbard appears as the playboy. In the course of the girl's adventures she becomes a switchboard operator and manages to disturb the equanimity of Wall Street and lose and make a fortune for Tone.

Eve Arden and William Tracy are other members of the cast—Miss Arden as Joan's roommate and young Tracy as a love-smitten office boy.

The picture is adapted from a popular magazine story.
