Announcement

Restrictions placed upon us by the Wartime Prices & Trade Board compel us to announce we shall be unable to put on our "Christmas Special" this year.

This practice of sending a small box of smoked fish, typical of the dominant industry of Prince Rupert, has become increasingly popular and we are very sorry we shall have to disappoint our many customers this year.

After the war, we hope we shall again be able to make this special Christmas offer available to our many friends.

Waterfront Whiffs

Quiet Days in Fishing Activity — New Ramp is Now in Use — Hunting
Party Back From Gardner
Canal Area

These are very much the dog days as far as fishing activities out of Prince Rupert are concerned. The most of the boats continue tied up although a few of the halibutters are engaged in mud shark and dog fish operations. There are no signs of herring as yet but it is still a little early. As soon as these fish appear seiners and packers will get into operation. Meanwhile the quiet season may be expected to continue for some time as the men of the fleet are not having any difficulty in getting employment. After the New Year there will be some activity in getting the fleet ready for another season in halibut and salmon fishing.

The new ramp leading from the foot of Pacific Place to the Canadian National Wharves was opened to traffic this week and that means of access to the local waterfront is again in use. What an important integral artery for traffic the overhead there is was not fully appreciated until it had been out of commission for the few weeks and traffic had to be routed by way of the rough detour over the hillside. However, the other road will be a useful emergency route in view of the greatly increased traffic to the waterfront.

A hunting party consisting of Bill Richards, George Rudderham and Ernie Gagne returned home on Thursday after a successful eleven day trip to the Gardner Canal and Douglas Channel area. The trip was made on the popular Richards' boat Grace R and Giltees, Hartley Bay, Kildala Arm and Long Inlet all were visited. Good hunting was obtained with a bag consisting of thirteen geese, fifty or sixty mallards and one deer. The party found considerable ice at the head of inlets and this made necessary curtailment of hunting operations at several points.

Coast Regiment Dance Is Success

Fine Affair Staged Thursday
Evening in Armory

On Thursday evening the Armory, which was gaily decked with flags, was the setting for a successful dance under the auspices of the Women's Auxillary of the Coast Regiment, Royal Canadian Artillery. The president, Mrs. C. Evitt, was in general charge. The orchestra of the Grenadiers provided delightful music for the some two hundred persons present.

Mrs. P. L. Peterson was the capable convener. Regimental Sgt. Major P. L. Peterson was master of ceremonies. Sgt. P. Doherty was at the door. Sgt. and Mrs. Dahlie were in charge of the pop stall. Mesdames Hadden, Taper, Roberts, Hanna, Brass were in charge of the refreshments.

The raffle, consisting of a teaset donated by Gordon & Anderson and a record player donated by McRae Bros., in charge of Mrs. R. Woods was drawn. The winner of the teaset was Mr. Catt, with ticket number 216. The record player was won by G. Hilwig with ticket number 1269.

Gyro Members At Stag Party

W. F. Stone Host Last Night—Installation of Officers Soon by District Governor

W. F. Stone was host to the members of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club last night with a jolly stag party at his home in the James Apartments. Card playing was the order of the evening and a happy time was spent by all. Delicious refreshments were served.

December 9 has been set as the date for the Gyro installation dinner when the district governor, Dr. George Froom of Kamloops, will be here to officiate. It will take the form of a mixed gathering with wives and lady friends in attendance. An honored visitor at that time will be Lieut. Orme Stuart who will be here on leave after two and a half years overseas with the navy.

NEWS FOR MIDLANDS

"I think Cobourg would stand at the top of the list per capita of enlistments for overseas," declared Maurice Booth, National Selective Service and Unemployment Insurance officer for the Cobourg area, speaking at a Rotary meeting at the British Hotel. "I think the town held that distinction in the past."

Announcement has been made that two Cobourg boys have been awarded the Canadian efficiency medal for service in the non-permanent active militia. Recipients of the awards are S. S. M. Jack Westley and Sgt. Albert E. Thompson.

Damage estimated at $25,000 was caused when fire raged through Pratt's flour mill in Cobourg a few days ago.

Among those who enlisted at Peterborough last week were James Henry Dixon, Cobourg; Gordon C. Boudry, Port Hope, and Orland W. Drinkwater, of Port Hope.

ROMANCE IN FILM

Excellent Cast, Deft Direction in
"The War Against Mrs. Hadley"

Laughter and romance in the face of emergency, in bustling wartime Washington enliven "The War Against Mrs. Hadley," coming next Monday and Tuesday to the Capitol Theatre, and presenting Fay Bainter as the prototype of many American women who tried vainly to avoid being enmeshed in war conditions until their awakening came.

The story revolves about Mrs. Hadley, wealthy socialite, who, when the war starts, tries, although she is not unpatriotic, to live her life as before, amid changing conditions. Her friends go into war work, her daughter marries a soldier against her wishes, her son is drafted, and when he is sent overseas she blames her suitor, a government official and they are estranged. Even her butler becomes an air raid warden. Then, in a dramatic climax, her awakening comes, and like millions of other American women, she casts her whole being into the conflict.

Mrs. Bainter handles the difficult role, with many delicate shades of characterization, with skill, and Richard Ney, as her son, repeats the fine performance he gave in "Mrs. Miniver." Young romance is supplied by Jean Rogers as the daughter and Van Johnson as her soldier sweetheart, and Spring Byington provides both comedy and drama as the socialite friend who goes into war work. Edward Arnold is a dominant figure as the government official, and Dorothy Morris, Miles Mander, Halliwell Hobbes and Frances Rafferty are other principals.
