SAMARITANS ARE SCARCE

Capt. A. Acrees, United States Army Padre, Speaker at Yesterday's Rotary Club Luncheon

There are plenty of people in the world today who are ready to prey on their helpless or stricken fellowman and take all he has. There are plenty of others who observe the plight of their less fortunate fellowman and pass him by. Unfortunately, there are all too few who take pity on those less blessed than themselves and endeavour to soothe his afflictions and aid him in his troubles.

So said Captain A. Acree, padre of the United States, in speaking before the Prince Rupert Rotary Club at luncheon yesterday. Capt. Acree spoke on "Philosophies of Life," taking as the inspiration of his address a discussion of the three types of men who passed the unfortunate traveler between Jerusalem and Jericho as related in the Biblical parable. He paralleled these three types of men to modern times, deploring the fact that there were so few Good Samaritans among people today.

Capt. Acree's address was listened to with appreciation by a good turn-out of Rotarians and several guests.

Bernard Allen, superintendent of the Prince Rupert Dry Dock, was introduced as a new member.

A. S. Nickerson was in the chair in the absence of President George C. Mitchell.

The raffle of a War Savings Certificate for the Queen's Fund was won by Hubert Ward.

Sweat Out Poison By Hard Exercise

Illustration in Case of Boy in Old Country

LONDON, Oct. 30 (CP) — Violent physical exercise will sweat the poison of a bee sting out of a person's system, said a contributor to the British Medical Journal. As proof, he told how, after being stung 10 times, he dragged a bicycle through dense heather for a mile. At the end of this haul his only complaint was an itch.

Actress Serving As House Painter

LONDON, Oct. 30 (CP)—Margaret Hood, an actress frequently heard in radio plays, is serving as a house painter in order to release a man for the forces. She is a full-time painter with a government-contract firm and earns one shilling 2½ pence an hour for a 10-hour day.
