LIKED PRINCE RUPERT

Editor, Daily News: It has given me great pleasure to spend five days in Prince Rupert. The people in your city seem to be kind and friendly. I was given to understand it did nothing but rain here. Well, I have not seen that. Your Cold Storage plant is very interesting and your ardens are grand. There was one garden I thought was so lovely I just had to snap a picture of it. It was near the Seal Cove School. The fence, the lawn, the lay-out was a picture in itself. I did try to find out the owner but all I Harold Dahl will leave this af- could learn was that he was a sailor who I hope will forgive me for taking a picture of his home. "YOUR ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR prevents HIDDEN Food Losses, too" SAYS Reddy Kilowatt

"We all know how the steady, controlled cold. of our electric refrigerators keeps food fresh and healthful longer," says Reddy, ". . . how it helps us to avoid the spoilage that can run away with a lot of food dollars. But we sometimes forget that it also prevents the bidden loss of vitamins and minerals by keeping green vegetables and other foods at a constant 40°-50°. "And that's mighty important these days, when our wartime jobs call for every ounce of pep and resistance we can muster, and which vitamins help to supply."

ST. PETER'S

Miss Jean Williscroft, Member Of Pioneer Family, Is Bride Of Mining Engineer

more report of the

A pretty and interesting wedding took place at 11 o'clock yesterday morning in St. Peter's Anglican Church at Seal Cove, which was attractively decorated for the occasion with flowers, when Miss Jean Louise Williscroft, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Williscroft of Port Essington. became the bride of Thomas Roger Buckham, son of J. E. Buckham of Parksville, Vancouver Island, and the late Mrs. Buckham. Very Rev. James B. Gibson D. D., dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral, officiated and the bride was given in marriage by Rev. E. W. Scott, rector of St. Peter's.

The bride, who was pretty in ther biege and brown ensemble with small flower hat and corsage of rosebuds, had as her bridesmaid Miss Isabel Brennan, who had a becoming powder blue dress and hat with corsage of pink flowers.

Charles F. Turnbull was groomsman.

Mrs. C. J. Norrington presided at the organ to provide the bridal music. Following the ceremony a reception was held in St. Peter's Rectory where refreshments were served, the bride cutting her wedding cake in due form. The toast to $ the bride was proposed by Dean Gibson and responded to by the groom. A toast to the bridesmaid was proposed by Dr. Joseph T Mandy and responded to by the groomsman.

After the reception the happy couple left for Vancouver and Victoria.

The bride is a member of one of the best known early pioneer families of this district.

The groom has been a mining engineer with the Premier mine and, having enlisted, is going to officers' training school at Gordon Head, Vancouver Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckham will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of many friends.
