ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT, Hostess

Mrs. Garbutt who writes this daily column has, like many others in Prince Rupert, fallen heir to a cold and will be away for a day or two. And so it is up to someone else to do the writing during her absence. It was difficult to find anone who would take on this responsibility. Marie was too busy trying to make an inventory balance. Ivan Mallett said he was too busy down at the waterfront these days learning to swim— he thinks that will help his work with the Navy. Carl Clay wanted to get another tooth pulled. He said the last one was so much fun. So there was only one left to do any writing—'Dutch, the Cat." We asked 'Dutch" if he would mind taking on the job during Mrs. Garbutt's absence and, much to our astonishment, he said—"yes," he would like to get a few things off his little white chest. And so we turned it over to Dutch.

From a Cat's Point of View— by "Dutch"

This article cannot be long— I have more important things to do than write. Now that Mrs. Garbutt is away I want to go over and sleep on her chair (it's nice and soft). Besides I want to keep an eye on the Service Wives' tea this afternoon. I can always pick up something to eat there. I no sooner get started than that Mrs. Woodside, who is boss over in the canteen, came rushing by and almost stepped on my tail. And now here comes that fellow they call "Red" from Ordinance and a whole lot more Ordinance. I must go over and talk to them for a few minutes. I see Cliff Perry from the Navy playing billiards. My! what a handsome man he is He is playing Ronnie from Air Force. I am going to get Ronnie to take me for a ride in his boat one of these days. And my favorite—Paul from the Officer's Mess (who always brings me my supper)—is playing ping pong with Corporal Doug Ramsay. I think it is a silly game. The Hamiltons have just arrived for their lunch and so I must close and get over there and talk to them—nicely. I forgot to say I am going to take in the "Y" movie tonight and see Mickey Mouse (who is really not as smart as some people think he is) and Donald Duck.

And that is all we could get out of "Dutch." Pprhaps we can have him back again sometime.

NURSING CLASSES

Prince Rupert Chapter No. 211, Women of the Moose, held its regular chapter meeting Wednesday evening and, at the conclusion of the business meeting and the ritualistic ceremonies, Dr. John MacDonald, public health officer, was received and introduced to the officers and members by the Senior Regent. Mrs. W. H. Tolin. Dr. McDonald addressed the ladies for fifteen minutes, explaining the Red Cross and war emergency home nursing course

The Senior Regent thanked Dr. McDonald and promised him the full cooperation of the chapter by forming classes in this vital and necessary work.

The balance of the evening was spent in entertainment by the Mooseheart and Library Committees in honor of Moosehaven, home and haven for the aged members of the Moose Lodge, and the old members of the chapter. The Senior Regent paid tribute to these old members who have so loyally upheld and protected their chapter through all the hard years of depression followed so closely with the conflict of war.

During the serving of refreshments a large basket of Christmas gifts was carried, these being distributed to the co-workers.

The merry-making was concluded with a double circle (the old members inside and the new members outside circle) singing Christmas carols. Then came the Lodge's beautiful closing song, "In the Valley of Sunshine," disbanding with 'Good Night Ladies."

SPORT CHAT
