THE SEAL O QUALITY

We recommend to civilians who are actually in need of underwear that they buy good underwear, the kind that will fit, last and give long wear. If it is woollen underwear give it more attention than would perhaps be done in normal peace times. The war situation requires that people economize and make things last longer and go farther.

In giving this advice to our patrons we do so sincerely because we believe that the Canadian people have come to rely on STANFIELD'S UNDER-WEAR as a standard of quality. STANFIELD'S brands are recognized. We wish to make "STAN-FIELDS" trade mark a sign and symbol of goodwill because it represents an investment of millions of dollars, not only in advertising but in research, manufacturing and marketing.
