Discussion Of Far East

Was Interesting Subject at Meeting of Local Youth Committee This Week.

Led by J. C. Gilker, there was a general round table discussion at a meeting of the Youth Committee of Prince Rupert this week on the subject of the Far East and India with particular reference to the races, their origins and customs as well as other aspects bearing on the present situation. Mrs. James Blaikie outlined the background of the Japanese while Jack Lamb, representing the Chinese Youth Association, spoke on behalf of China. Bruce Mickleburgh, the president, was in the chair.

Recently the Youth Committee drew up a petition petitioning the government to remove all Japanese from the defence areas of the coast to the interior of the country.

WEDDED AT ST. PETER'S

Miss Anne Sorensen Is Beautiful Bride of Harold Hampton

A beautiful marriage of much local interest was solemnized at St. Peter's Anglican Church, Seal Cove, Thursday evening when Miss Anne Gurine Sorensen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Sorensen, became the bride of Harold Leslie Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abel Hampton of Vancouver.

The lovely bride entered the church upon the arm of her brother, Ole Sorensen, by whom she was given in marriage. The bridesmaid was Miss Selvig Sorensen and the groomsman, George Vierick.

The bride was gowned in pure white sheer georgette with three-quarter net veil arranged in Norwegian style. Her shower bouquet was of pink roses and carnations.

The bridesmaid wore sheer pink and carried pink carnations.

During the signing of the register Mrs. Ole Wick sang "Because." Sergeant Robert Townsend of the Royal Canadian Engineers was organist.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the Boston Cafe. The happy couple received the congratulations and best wishes of many friends under silver wedding bells in an attractive bower.

P. H. Linzey was master of ceremonies and gave a witty, tasteful and complimentary address. The toast to the bride was proposed in happy vein by Canon W. F. Rushbrook, being responded to by the bridegroom. Harold Ponder proposed a toast to the bridesmaid to which the groomsman responded. A handsome three-tier wedding cake was duly cut by the bride. A feature of the proceedings was the introduction of William Lamb who, on behalf of Toc H, gave a pleasing address, extolling the qualities of the groom and presenting the couple with a beautiful clock.

Dancing brought the evening to a close.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampton will reside in Prince Rupert.

The Y.M.C.A. programs, formerly held on Sunday nights, have now been changed to Friday nights. These are the programs which feature a quiz contest and review of the news. The first Friday night one was last night with Organizer C. F. Leslie in charge and Bruce Stevens giving the news.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Bessie Clarkston, who died on February 8, 1938.

"In the early hours the Saviour came
To gather in his flowers,
He touched the lilies one by one,
But the one he plucked was ours"

"The flowers were placed upon her grave,
May wither in a day,
But fresh and green within our hearts
Her memory will ever stay."

Inserted by her daughter, Mrs. George Weightman.
