FIRST AID EQUIPMENT

Much More is Needed So Appeal Is Being Put In To Authorities

The situation in regard to first aid facilities against the possibility of an air raid or other cause was discussed last night at a meeting of some fifty first aiders in the City Hall last night. It was decided to urge the necessity of more adequate supplies for first aid purposes. If this is not met in a short time by the authorities, then a local canvass will be held to raise funds to purchase the required supplies.

W. E. Denning, captain of the Court House first aid team, presided over the meeting last night. Sergeant Major Albert Robinson of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps addressed the meeting after which there was a general discussion.

MEDICOS MEETING

Convention of Canadian Medical Association At Jasper Park

JASPER, PARK, June 16:—With almost nine hundred physician and surgeon delegates to the 73rd annual meeting of the Canadian Medical Association on hand, this internationally known mountain resort officially opened its doors on the 1942 season yesterday. It was the largest opening in the history of the Lodge.

One of the principal points of interest to the guests was the golf course and the numbers playing today were quite reminiscent of the Totem Pole golf week. The course is in excellent condition and the Pro, Bill Brinkworth and his assistant, Leroy Goldworthy, have been busy meeting old friends. As usual the flowers in the beds and the Lodge interior have attracted more than passing mention as Jasper is especially noted for its extraordinary beautiful Canterbury Bells which made such an impression during the Royal Visit in 1939.

The Lodge will remain open until August 31.

Working Plan For British Columbia Shipyards Is Approved

The local Boilermakers' Union, at a meeting Sunday night, endorsed the new plan adopted at a conference of shipyard unions in Vancouver last week favoring the six-day instead of seven-day week plan for the British Columbia coast.

Edward White was leeted president of the Union in succession to Murdoch McKenzie with Harry Anderson as the new vice-president. Nell Lang was added to the executive.

"Kid Glove Killer" Comes Wednesday To Capitol Theatre Here

Shedding light on a little known phase of police work, scientific crime detection, "Kid Glove Killer," featuring Van Heflin, Marsha Hunt and Lee Bowman, comes to the Capitol Theatre for Wednesday only of this week.

The picture traces the slayers of two men, both newly-elected officials on a reform ticket, through means of modern police crime laboratories and pin their crimes upon them. Van Heflin is the police chemist and Marsha Hunt is his assistant in the unravelling of the two slayings.

Fast-paced the picture swings into action immediately with the discovery of the district attorney's body in a lake. The only clues are square knots used on the binding the body and traces of an unusual ointment. In the laborator-Mexican Field Tomatoes, lb. 22 and finally pinned on the slay-er who is killed resisting arrest. Then the mayor discovers Bowman is linked with the underworld and Bowman plants a bomb in the mayor's car killing him. Again Heflin and Miss Hunt swing into action, tracing the bomb clues down to Bowman who tipped off unwittingly by Miss Hunt, attempts to kill Heflin.

An excellent cast also includes Samuel S. Hinds, Cliff Clark, Eddie uilian, John Litel, Catherine Lewis and Nella Walker.
