CORN FRITTERS

1¾ cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt.
Few grains pepper
¾ cup milk
1 cup corn
1 egg, beaten
1 tablespoon fat (melted)
1 teaspoon onion juice (optional)

Mix and sift dry ingredients. Mix corn, egg, milk and fat, add to dry ingredients and mix well. Drop by spoonfuls into hot, deep lard 350-365 degrees F and fry 2-5 minutes turning once. Drain on unglazed paper. Serve in combination with other vegetables to form a vegetable plate, or alone with syrup or a tart jelly.

Send Your Copy Early

Local news contributions should be in the Daily News office by 10 a.m. on the day following the event—preferably the night before, a letterbox in the door being there to receive copy. Local news not in by 10 a.m. runs the risk of not being published. We prefer to have news contributions typewritten neatly and double spaced, if possible. However, legible writing will do.

FIREMEN IN MOVIES

LONDON, Sept. 11 (CP)—Work of the London Fire Brigade photographic unit which operated during the blitz is to go on display so that Britons may see just how their fire fighters carried on during air raids.

RATION FAREWELLS

LONDON, Sept. 11 (CP)—Platform farewells now are being "rationed" at London's main line railway stations. At rush hours station authorities are cancelling platform tickets to make room for real passengers.
