FESTIVAL CONCERT

Interesting Program Friday Night Presents Array of Local Talent —Purpose Explained

Festival concerts, being staged on Friday nights of this week and next in First Presbyterian Church, are sponsored primarily for the purpose of arousing interest and enthusiasm in good music. The organizers have been expending muih time and energy in preparing the program which will bring into play an interesting array of local talent and which should prove of widespread interest. The choirs and individuals taking part in the recital are from several schools and clubs in Prince Rupert and the presentations at the concert will demonstrate to the public the purpose of the permanent musical organization which is to be organized next fall.

Proceeds will go to war charities and tickets should be obtained in advance at Orme's Drug Store.

The program Friday night will be as follows:

UNUSUAL ROMANCE

"Honky Tonk" With Clark Gable And Lana Turner, To Have Three-day Run Here

Fast-paced adventure and unconventional romance are blended in "Honky Tonk," starring Clark Gable and Lana Turner, which is the feature picture on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for the last half of this week—Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It is the rip-snorting story of a western gold camp with a back-drop of unusual romance.

Gable appears as a fascinating card sharp with political ambitions who is run out of one camp after another to finally make his last stand in Yellow Creek where he not only fleeces the citizens but battles for the highest political offices. He fights with six-shooting implements and rapier-keen wit against his enemies and besieges Miss Turner in an unusual courtship. Miss Turner is a prim Boston school teacher who comes west to find her father but instead discovers perilous adventure and romance.

An outstanding supporting cast includes Frank Morgan, Claire Trevor, Marjorie Main and Albert Dekker.
