NOW IS THE TIME---

Give us an order right away for the amount of coal you expect to need next season. This will enable us to meet your requirements now or as supplies arrive.

It is important that you should lay in your coal supply this summer as it is almost certain that the dealers will not be able to cope satisfactorily with the demand next winter.

IT IS NOT HOARDING TO BUY YOUR COAL EARLY (It is also necessary to place your order a day ahead of Delivery)

With War On Tramps Few

Conflict Has Taken Hoboes Off British Highways and Roads

GLASGOW, August 11: (9- If nothing else, the war has taken the tramps off the highways and by-ways of Britain. Just how many have been called to the forces or oressed into war industry no statistics can ever show but an Anglo-Scots Walking Tours meeting here noted the absence this year of the mobile army afoot which used to haunt the British countryside.

Facts available show that those men who still are wanderers favor the Welsh hills and the warmer south of England. For generations tramps have left their chalk marks on the walls of country houses. A circle and a cross meant Food here:" a ragged line. "Beware of the dog." Now a new symbol has been seen—the swastika with a line through it. The first erson to notice this on his gate post was reported to be a mean farmer, famous locally for reporting all unshaven shirkers to the
