Send Your Copy Early

Local news contributions should be in the Daily News office by 10 a.m. on the day following the event—preferably the night before, a letterbox in the door being there to receive copy. Local news not in by 10 a.m. runs the risk of not being published. We prefer to have news contributions typewritten neatly and double spaced, if possible. However, legible writing will do.

A BRITISH PORT, Aug. 11 (CP)—There were torpedoes all around when the three-month-old daughter of Lieut. Peter S. W. Roberts, one of Britain's youngest V.C.'s, was christened aboard a submarine in the forward torpedo compartment with the ship's bell, inverted, as a baptismal font.

ATHLETES AT WAR

By MIKE GREENSTEIN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, August 11: (CP)—Jack Galbraith, former Ottawa baseball star who did a stretch with the Oswego Club of the Canadian-American loop three years ago, made an impressive debut with the Montreal Royal Canadian Air Force baseball team a short while ago.

Up at bat for the first time in the local Intermediate Baseball League at Atwater Park, he asked "Has anyone ever hit the building on St. Catherines Street?" As if to provide a partial reply to his own question, Galbraith proceeded to blast the ball onto the aforementioned thoroughfare for a homer.

Another football-playing Toronto school teacher has joined the army. Jack Casson, one-time lineman of the University of Toronto football team, who has been teaching the rudiments of rugby to aspiring high school athletes ever since his graduation, has been commissioned in the Canadian Army.

Jud Snell, 24-year old right wing ace of Ottawa Royal Canadian Air Force Flyers, Allan Cup winners, started his hockey career with the University of Manitoba Juniors in 1936. He enlisted in Brandon, Manitoba.

Maritime boxing fans will remember Sgt.-Major Frank (Marshall) Taylor, formerly of Moncton and Halifax and once Maritime welterweight boxing champion. Taylor added to an active ring career quite a spell of boxing promoting, instructing and managing. Another Maritime well-known in ring centres, is Gordon Wendell, who is with the R.C.A.F. at Moncton. As Kid Hart he was Maritime featherweight and lightweight champion.

Mel Wilson, 25-year old snap of the champion Winnipeg Blue Bombers, has enlisted as an ordinary seaman with the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve. A star of the national champions of 1939 and 1941, Wilson was a master at handling lateral passes. He scored a touchdown in last year's final against Ottawa Rough Riders which the Bombers won 18-16.

Gene Homer-Dixon, at present with a British Columbia Regiment, recently spent a furlough in Vancouver where he was noted as a tennis player with the Vancouver Lawn Tennis and Badminton Club.

Lou Somers, now a pilot officer overseas with the R.C.A.F., is remembered by Toronto Varsity football fans as one of the fastest little halfbacks and forward pass receivers in the pre-war intercollegiate football days. Cam Gray, who played on the half-line with Lou, now holds a commissin with the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps.

HAS HOPES AT 69

LONDON, August 11: (CP)—Sir John Laurie, bachelor Lord Mayor of London, still hopes to get married. His grandfather, who lived to 100, was married late in life, says Sir John. J
