Youth Committee Dance Is Enjoyed

Attendance Last Night Was Not Large But Affair Is Happy One

While the crowd was not large, the dance held by the local Youth Committee in the Metropole Hall last night was an enjoyable affair. The place was attractively flags of the united nations, making a gala appearance.

Dancing was in progress from p.m. until 1 a.m. with music by Bobby Woods' Orchestra and Bruce Mickleburgh, who was i general charge, as master of cere-

That Is All That Are Now Left In All Prince Rupert Area

After this afternoon there will be only two Japanese families left in Prince Rupert area following the recent evacuation. These were remaining after one family left decorated for the occasion with Claxton aboard the Cardena today for Vancouver where all the Japanese are being assembled for distribution outside of the defence areas. The two remaining families are on the Skeena River. Family illness is the only reason why they have not also left.
