OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT, Hostess

Once again we had a Christmas party for the children at the 'Y' Tuesday afternoon when we entertained children of the various Sunday Schools in town. A special children's movie was shown and in the middle of it the show was stopped and a most important wire was received direct from Santa to the children. It read: On my way, may be little late, be seeing you." And sure enough in a little while there was a jingle of sleigh bells and a shout and the old fellow came running in a jolly as all get out. He distributed sweets and apples to everyone and was especially nice to the bigger girls. In fact he even asked Mrs. Donnell to sit on his knee. (Secret: she

Tonight is the 'Y' regular weekly dance so we'll be seeing all you boys and gals. It starts at eight now and finishes at 10:30 which is proving to be a most satisfactory arrangement.

In wrapping up the boys' parcels this year I have been very much struck by the good taste they have displayed in the selection of their gifts. Housecoats and moccasin slippers seem to run first favorites while signet rings, lockets and bracelets come a close second. Made me wish I were somebody's sweetheart.

Following the program Santa from Terrace over the week-end Claus arrived on the scene and and as I know this column is read gifts for all the children were pre- there may I wish all our friends there a very happy Christmas and
