You can save your wash from YELLOW TINGE

BLUE stops clothes from turning yellow and makes them snowy WHITE

On wash days add a swish or two of Blue to the last rinse and see how gloriously white your things become — as white as the whitest summer clouds — all traces of dingy yellow gone. Only Blue will make your clothes snowy white.

RB24

Seven colours combine to make white. One of these colours is blue. There is no true white without Blue!

To stop clothes turning YELLOW— To keep them sparkling WHITE— use RECKITT'S BLUE

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Indian Agent James Gillett returned to the city yesterday afternoon on the departmental cruiser Naskeena from a trip to various points around the mouth of the Naas River including Port Simpson, Kincolith, Arrandale, Mill Bay and Wales Island. Mr. Gillett reports that there has been unusually good success this spring in gillnetting for springs on the Naas River, some of the native fishermen having already earned $600 or $700. Most of the fish has been brought into Prince Rupert by packer. The native fishermen are now preparing for the opening of the sockeye fishing season as from the first of next week.

Considerable activity is developing at the Dominion Fisheries office these days in taking out of sockeye gillnet licences in readiness for the opening of the season on the Skeena and Naas Rivers next Sunday evening. With the Japanese away, salmon fishing this season will be confined to white and native fishermen.

SIGNALS IN FINAL

Defeated Area Headquarters Two To Nothing Last Night In Dominion Day Cup Football

Signals defeated Area Headquarters by a score of two to nothing last night in a semi-final of the Dominion Day football cup series, thus qualifying to meet Air Force in the final to be played next Wednesday. It was a well contested game in spite of the fact that Headquarters was unable to score and proved of much interest to a good-sized crowd of fans.
