Why Does My Country Ask Me to Buy More VICTORY BONDS?

WHAT TO DO-AND HOW TO DO IT

YOU are going to be asked to buy more Victory Bonds. You will ask some perfectly human and fair questions. You have a right to know the facts, and to understand why your Country asks you to lend this money now, instead of spending it on yourself.

Why is this extra money needed now?

First, fighting men must be fed, clothed and paid, and their families must live. Second, thousands of munition workers' wage envelopes must be filled each pay-day. Third, war materials such as metals and explosives must be bought. These are urgent needs, you will agree, and cannot wait. This year, in order to keep up our war effort, Canada must have 3,900 million dollars.

Why won't the taxes provide enough?

All kinds of taxes combined, will provide about 2,000 million dollars. Compulsory savings will provide less than 100 million. These two total 2,100 million, leaving 1,800 million to be raised by voluntary lending this year.

Can large companies make up the difference?

The large industries, insurance companies and other businesses can subscribe only about onethird of the total annual requirement. Bear in mind that business is now paying 100 cents on the dollar excess profit tax.

Must my country borrow from people like me?

Yes. Your country must turn to you for help. It has nowhere else to go. Just as Canada needs the work of your hands in the war factories, or the courage of our fighting men in battle, so it needs the money of every man and woman, rich and poor, for victory.

How much money should I lend?

Lend as much as you possibly can. Think of yourself as a soldier, and ask yourself the same question put in a different way-"How hard should I fight?" You are free men-you know the answer. You know what has happened to Labour in occupied countries!

How can I buy Victory Bonds?

The easiest way is to go to your employer and ask him to set aside a definite sum from each pay envelope to buy Victory Bonds. These bonds may be bought in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and larger. You will receive your Bond within a week or so after you have paid the last instalment. The repayment of every dollar you invest in Victory Bonds is guaranteed by Canada, plus a fair rate of interest.

Your country needs your help-NOW. Be ready to do your part.
