C.G.I.T. Service Sunday Evening

Vesper Ceremony to Be Held In First Baptist Church

Part of a nation-wide Christmas celebration when Canadian Girls in Training from Charlottetown to Victoria, with their parents and friends, will worship together as one community, reading the familiar Christmas story, and lighting candles as a symbol of the light that came into the world at Christmas, a Christmas vesper service will be held this Sunday evening in the First Baptist Church here. Canadian Girls in Training will conduct the service. There will be carol-singing and a candle-lighting ceremony.

Part of the offering taken at the service will be contributed to the National Girls' Work Board of the Religious Education Council of Canada which sponsors the Canadian Girls in Training movement. These offerings enable the Board to carry on its work of promoting the Canadian Girls in Training movement in the Protestant churches in Canada.
