SPY FILM ON SCREEN

A swift and furious spy drama, "Lucky Jordan," with a novel theme, comes to the Capitol Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

"Lucky Jordan," is Alan Ladd's first starring picture. He was previously featured with Veronica Lake in "This Gun for Hire" and "The Glass Key," both smash hits.

In "Lucky Jordan," Ladd is supported by a brilliant young newcomer, blonde and gorgeous Helen Walker. Others in the picture are Sheldon Leonard, Mabel Paige and Lloyd Corrigan.

Ladd plays a gangster who tries to put the "fix" on the army when his draft number comes up. When he finally lands in uniform he promptly goes absent without leave, kidnaps a canteen hostess, steals an automobile and heads for the big city. What he doesn't know is that a brief case in the stolen car contains vital military secrets, secrets that his old gang is after for sale to Axis agents. How Ladd at first plays along with the crooks and then suddenly turns patriotic and rounds up the spies for the Federal Bureau of Investigation is the story of an exciting and unusual film.
