ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.
By DOROTHY GARBUTT

What with the newspapers being adrift for several days over the Christmas week-end I missed out on telling the Junior Hostesses about the Highway dance which is being held tonight, Tuesday, instead of the usual Thursday night. Carl Clay has the Navy Dance Band for the occasion so we expect lots of girls out. Junior Hostesses and chaperones will meet at the Y Hut. Mrs. Jessie Hardy and Mrs. Eva Pigeon will be the Y.W.C.A. chaperones and representatives of the Order of the Women of the Moose.

As this is the last dance where chaperones will be called for this month I would like to thank the Women of the Moose for their splendid service and co-operation especially in a month chuk-a-block with domestic duties. Next month the ladies of the Orange Lodge will take over.

What a grand Christmas it was at all, at all! Starting off with the day being one of the nicest on record and the sight of all the ships in the harbor carrying tiny fir trees at their masts, the Christmas spirit found complete expression in the gathering of the clans at the Y.M.C.A. Cafeteria. Here Pat Trant, Mine Host for the day, served such a beautiful Christmas dinner to everyone on the Y staff and to everyone's boy friend and girl friend as well. Starting with soup, the dinner went through the entire Christmas menu. Everyone knew everyone else and it was like a great family reunion. But it all meant work for someone for the kitchen staff and for Pat who planned it all. Later in the day, Pat, still full of plum pudding and the Father Christmas spirit, held open house to all the "Y" people up at the staff House on Borden Street. We all wandered in and out as fancy took us, ate cold turkey sandwiches, helped with a monster jig saw puzzle, fingered out melodies on the piano or listened almost with respect while Don Adams thundered great symphonic chords or played carols for us or went through album after album of "Twenty Five Years of Popular Song" or "Medleys of Familiar Music" or "Collections" of this that or the Plays Delightful Character in "Man From Down Under" Coming Here at Middle of Week.

LAUGHTON LOVEABLE

Charles Laughton takes the part of a loveable Australian character in "The Man From Down Under," coming to the Capitol Theatre here this Wednesday and Thursday.

The story starts at the end of the last war when Laughton leaves Belgium, taking with him a musical gem. It was a thoroughly delightful, homely Christmas, and to Heather Belisle and Pat Trant who helped make us feel one big family our unbounded thanks.

I think all the service boys and girls were pretty well cared for over Christmas. I know all the various messes were having Christmas dinners planned and down at the navy they had a special entertainment after dinner. We had quite a number of last minute invitations for the boys and girls for dinner and one super affair where residents of one of the islands in the harbor came over and took back a boatload of service people to their home for the day. The thrill of eating Christmas dinner away out on an island, "practically in the Pacific Ocean" was one those girls and boys from the East will long remember.
