By DOROTHY GARBUTT The Hostess

I forgot all about the Service Wives Club meeting on Thursday afternoon, and what a grand meeting it was too with eighteen wives and eleven babies at it. In fact they are thinking of electing a secretary from among the kiddies' ranks to keep track of the toys Kaspar won from Private Weiner biscuits needed when milk is served. This week Mrs. Abrahams, who is one of the most faithful of the members, finally won the raffle which was donated by Mrs. Kimmel. The refreshments were prepared by Mrs. Jurmain and served by Mrs. Girardet. The books for the Margaret Bishop quilt are selling like hot cakes and only a few are left.
