with Mrs. J. R. Blakey as president, Mrs. Stanley as secretary and Mrs. H. Harrison as treasurer.

The organizing meetings have been held at the home of Mrs. A. Gomez but henceforth meetings will be held at the East End Hall. They will be held on second and fourth Tuesdays.

One of the matters that the league is already active upon that of the local milk supply and efforts are being made in various directions to obtain and adequate supply for babies and small child-

Representations have also been made to Wartime Housing in connection with the coal storage supply for the local industrial residences. At present there are no bins adequate to store coal and the occupants of the houses are unable to put in supplies. The league has been advised that Wartime Housing is considering a coal yard plan.
