By DOROTHY GARBUTT

I would like to thank Mr. Robertson who was in town recently on his way to Alaska for his very kind donation towards comforts for our boys. It was unexpected and the gift of a kindly heart. Thank you, sir.

There is just one new service baby to report this week. Master Stuart Peter Watson was born on October 14 and weighed eight pounds 1 1/2 ounces on arrival. Stuart's mother is one of our English war brides, several of whom are now in Prince Rupert, and his daddy is Squadron Leader J. D. Watson, RCAF. Congratulations Mum and Dad.

Although it's almost two months away plans are going ahead for a big service children's Christmas party at the Navy Drill Hall. That's all I can tell you just now, folks, but the enthusiasm with which the idea is taking hold augurs well for a real bang up party. I think they are sending signals out to Santa Claus just now to see what date will suit him best. Remember kiddies, any one of you who has a daddy in the services is very welcome.

I understand from Carl Gray that the Highway dance scheduled for this Friday night is cancelled because it will conflict with the Navy dance which had been postponed until this Friday.

The Service Wives' Club will meet this Thursday afternoon in the ladies' lounge at the "Y." All Services wives are very cordially welcomed as it is by no means a closed membership.

Remember just a year ago we were all singing, humming and whistling "White Christmas"?

I don't know why I never thought of it before but, what with summer being over and flowers very scarce, Jean Melvin and I went out Saturday afternoon and brought in pine and spruce boughs and salal leaves to decorate the hut. I think they are even prettier than flowers although don't tell Mrs. Winslow and Christel Braun I said so.

BOXING AT ROAD CAMP

The weekly entertainment in the spacious dining hall at Rayner's Camp on the Skeena drew a capacity crowd to enjoy a series of boxing contests staged by the entertainment committee. Two classy boys opened in the lightweight class, the Skeena Kid outpointing the Tye Thunderbolt in three fast rounds, followed by the lighthweight from Skeena Stores and the Tye Mule Skin-

SELLS LARGEST NUMBER OF POLICIES

Richard Sephton

The Mutual Life of Canada has announced that Mr. Richard Sephton of Bralorne again qualified for membership in the Quarter Million Club on his outstanding record in the Club Year recently closed. Mr. Sephton has the distinction of having sold more policies in the Club Year than any other representative in the Company's entire organization, and he is 2nd Vice-President of the Club.

Qualification for Club membership not only requires the production of a large volume of business but also signifies a high quality of life insurance service.

Mr. Sephton is to be highly commended on his splendid achievement.

ner in a four round no-decision bout. Teabone Kelly and Two-Tone Joe Ferin gave a fast exhibition to a draw and the comedy event of the evening between Doc Church of Skeena and the Tye champion of the Golden Gloves nearly resulted in a knockout for the referee, Aleck Chisholm, who awarded the decision to himself.

HIT COMEDY IS SHOWING

Heralded as one of the comedy hits of the year, "They Got Me Covered," starring Bob Hope, which comes to the Capitol Theatre this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, revolves about the side-splitting efforts of a discredited American foreign correspondent to redeem himself by exposing an enemy spy ring in the nation's capital.

The Moscow correspondent for a news agency did not believe the Germans were invading Russia but thought that troops marching past his office were merely parading in honor of his birthday. So Bob is summoned home and fired. Deeply hurt he goes to Washington to see his girl who is with the news agency there. He becomes involved in his efforts to get the sensational inside story on spying and sabotaging activities. The girl is kidnapped by the members of a spy ring and Bob is plunged into a dizzy and hilarious whirl of adventures culminating in an exciting climax.

Gaiety and laughs alternate with thrills in the picture the supporting cast of which includes Lenore Aubret, a talented new find, Otto Preminger, Edward Ginnelli, Donald Meek Philip Ahn, members of the spy group; Marion Martin, as a blonde charmer; Donald MacBride as Bob's hot-tempered boss; John Abbott, as a mysterious agent, and Phyllis Ruth, as a kidnapped stenographer, as well as Walter Catlett, Florence Bates and Frank Sully.
