Braised Heart

Liver, Heart or Kidneys should be eaten once a week, say Canada's food rules

Properly cooked, the "variety meats" are really delicious. What is more, they are often less in demand and as "protective foods" they are tops. This week we give you our favourite recipe for Beef Heart. First, the dressing: 1 cup stale bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 2 tablespoons sausage meat, 1 egg. Brown sausage and onions in 1 tablespoon beef dripping. Add bread crumbs, beaten egg and seasoning. Now wash the heart and remove tubes. Season; fill with dressing and sew up. Brown in hot fat. Add 1/2 cup vegetable stock or water. Cover and cook slowly for about 3 hours till tender, adding guid as needed. Try serving Heart aised this way, with cauliflower and corn kernels, for a main dish. It nakes a thrifty meal but a very delicious one-and you know your family is getting the kind of food
