WAR NEWS

HOLDING IN TUNISIA

LONDON-The Axis advance along thet coast in northern Tunisia has been effectively checked. In central Tunisia there is little change in the situation. To the south Axis sallies from the Mareth Line have been held back. After weeks of strong German attacks, the British First Army had abandoned Sedjanane Friday, falling back seven miles to higher ground at Tamera, it was announced today. Later the Germans were stopped. The British withdrawal gave the Germans a total 20-mile advance along the Biserte-Mateur-Tabarka coastal road.

REDS MAKE HEADWAY

MOSCOW-The Russians are still making headway along the entire long front against the Nazis despite efforts of the latter at increased resistance. Beyond Vyasma and towards Smolensk particularly swift progress is being made.

MORE JAP SHIPS SUNK

WASHINGTON-Most important news from the southwestern Pacific is the announcement of two large Japanese destroyers having been sunk in a sea battle last Thursday in the Solomons Islands area. No United States vessels were lost. This makes 62 Japanese war vessels that have been so far lost in the Jolomons alone. Straggler groups in lifeboats of 15,000 Japanese troops spilled into Bismarch Sea by the sinking of a 22-ship convoy have been mopped up by Allied planes, the High Command announces. Long range fighters swept the entire area, completing the mopping up of barges, lifeboats and rafts from sunken ships. A communique reported there was scarcely a survivor as far as was known.

Speakers said that the men were anxious to continue work but would be unable to do so unless they got what was described as adequate food.

Robert Greenfield Dies in South After Illness There of Two Months

Robert Greenfield, who resided in Prince Rupert for nearly twenty years and who for a long time was bandmaster of the Prince Rupert Boys' Band, passed away on Saturday at hospital in New Westminster where he had been a patient for the past two months. The remains are being brought back to Prince Rupert for interment and the funeral will take place next Sunday afternoon. News of his passing will be regretted by many

The late Mr. Greenfield was fifty-seven years of age and was born at Newcastle, England. He came to Canada about 1909 and followed his trade as a carpenter and cabinet maker at Edmonton until the outbreak of the First Great War when he enlisted in the celebrated forty-Ninth Edmonton Regiment. He served in France as machine gunner, snipe; and bandsman; seeing service in such battles as Paschendaelle and Vimy Ridge. Returning to Canada he was for a time at Edmonton and Winnipeg. A talented cornetist, he was one of thirty-two members of the famous Great War Veterans Band which spent eighteen months touring

Canada and the United States. Coming to Prince Rupert, the late Mr. Greenfield was for a time a member of the old Westholme Theatre Orchestra. For many years he was bandmaster of the Prince Rupert Boys' Band. Mr. Greenfield is survived by his widow in Winnipeg and one son Corp. Thomas Greenfield who is with the Royal Canadian Artillery here. There are also two grandchildren.
