ACCOUNT OF THE PROPERTY OF THE

Local Regiment Enjoy And Entertainment in Armories last Night.

Boxing, refreshments, music and a preview of a moving picture were the aids to an eve-Rupert Machine Gun Regiment in the armories last

With about 200 attending, and Norton Youngs, cha. man of the entertainment committee, in charge, the program got under way with the singing of "O Canada." The regimental band, which was under the direction of Colin McCarthy in the absence of Bandmaster Peter Lien, accompanied the singing, and played at intervals during the evening, greatly enhancing the proceedings.

Following an official welcome to the guests by Col. G. C. Osparty warmed up with commuwell, officer commanding, the nity singing led by Jack Mc-Lellan of the Y.M.C.A., accompanied on the piano by Leading Aircraftsman A. Hunt.

Five boxing bouts were featured during the evening. Being exhibition matches, no decisions were reached but, from the spectators' viewpoint, they were good shows.

The first four bouts were of three rounds each and the fifth extended to four rounds. They were:

Bob Anderson vs. Carl Dan-

Johnny Richards, 150 pounds, vs. Bennie Windle, 140. Rudy Eckstein, 179, vs. Kelly Snider, 170.

Perychuk, VS. Bohnke, 155. Bill Poryako, 175, vs. Steve Bright, 168.

Hilarious was a session of boxing in barrels, by members representing of all companies. Prize! in this humorous boxing twist! was a cup, a noble goblet which was a fine example of the tinsmith's art. After the dust of battle had cleared, the winner was recognized as Private Jack

Throughout the evening refreshments, prepared by the wives of the members of the entertainment committee, were

During the entertainment J W. Nicholls, honorary colonel of the regiment, was introduced and regaled the the smokers with a number of well appreciated army stories.

A skit in now army training should not be done was presented by Sergeants Johnston, Teng, Noble, Carr, Martador, Elkins, Collins and Garner, and Corporals Stone, Assemisson and Ferguson. Sergeant Major MacDonald, taking the straight role of drill sergeant, was harrassed and outraged by a group on nondescript trainees. Sgt. Johnston acted as a colonel.

Music and magic were the offerings of a pair of entertainers from the Air Force. They were LAC Snyder, who sang a number of songs, accompanying himself on his guitar, and Pilot Officer Bracket, who puzzled and amused his audience with tricks of magic.

Following the smoker the regiment was formed into companies and preceded by Piper Sergeant J. Robertson and the band drummers, paraded to the Capitol Theatre where they were treated to a preview of the show "This is The Army show was presented through the courtesy of D. G. Borland, theatre manager.

Alan Armstrong arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from his studies at Vancouver to spend the Christmas and New Year holiday season with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. L Armstrong. *****
