Canadian Yards Salvage Valuable War Cargoes, Repair Freighters of all Types

Diver's helmet is adjusted before salvage begins on cargo of wreck in Eastern port. By repairing damaged ships and salvaging sunken cargo Dept. of Munitions and Supply saves important tonnage, thousands of dollars worth of war goods.

In the top picture is seen damage done to side of freighter by two torpedoes from a sub. A third torpedo crashed into opposite side of ship. Despite her wounds, gallant crew brought her into port. In dry dock with her cargo removed repair work began, and in the lower picture she is shown with a completely new side, signs of torpedo damage are gone, she is ready for sea again.
