LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Sons of Norway Meeting Thursday 8 o'clock, Oddfellows' Hall. (258)

Mrs. Martin Miller returned to the city yesterday from a trip to Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Robins, who have been on a trip to Vancouver, returned from the south yesterday.

Reginald Bowering, sanitary engineer for the Provincial Board of Health, arrived in the city yesterday from Victoria for a visit here on official business.

Squadron Leader and Mrs. Alfred Large arrived in the city yesterday from Vancouver, Squadron Leader Large, who is a brother of Dr. R. G. Large of this city, being here to take over the duty as medical officer for the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Mrs. G. Krause and son, Gus Krause, and daughter, Miss Thomasina Krause, will leave tonight for a trip to Vancouver.

Ernest Exley has been appointed assistant janitor of Booth Memorial High School at a salary of $125 per month.

Miss Charlotte Dodimead, who has been on a three weeks' holiday trip to Vancouver, returned home yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. D. W. Jenkins, wife of the purser of the steamer Prince Rupert, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Vancouver for a visit here.

Fourteen windows were broken at Booth Memorial School on Hallowe'en, it was reported at the meeting of the board of school trustees last night.

At Tuesday night's meeting of the city council a tender for printing assessment roll forms was let to the Dibb Printing Company for $162.

The incidence of truancy in the schools came up for some discussion at last night's school board meeting. The necessity of keeping a close check on pupils was emphasized. Lack of parental co-operation in some cases was mentioned.

A letter from W. D. Lamby announcing the appointment of Jack Deane, chairman of the board of school trustees, as a member of the citizen's committee on the Fifth Victory Loan campaign was read at last night's meeting of the board of school trustees.

Mrs. Allan Sheardown and son arrived in the city yesterday from Kamloops to take up residence, joining Mr. Sheardown who has become identified with his brother, N. G. Sheardown, in the retail grocery business.

Mrs. M. C. Moses had a letter before the board of school trustees at its meeting last night acknowledging an increase in salary. While she would have done her best under any circumstances, the increase was nevertheless much appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Seymour and son, Allen, of Cedarvale were in Terrace early in the week, returning home Tuesday night. While in Terrace they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner.

The board of school trustees last night decided to take steps to have painted and generally brightened up a classroom in Booth Memorial School which is at present quite dark and dingy. If it is impossible to obtain a commercial painter to carry out the work, W. Hayhurst, one of the members of the teaching staff, has offered to do the job in spare time.
