DRESS SHOW INTERESTING

Novel Display Presented by Girls of High School Home Economics Department

Featuring a novel display dresses fashioned and made by the girls themselves, the home economics department of Booth Memorial High School held its annual demonstration of handiwork in the auditorium of the school last Saturday afternoon. There was a large attendance of interested mothers and friends. A display of manual and industrial arts was exhibited in the corridors and also evoked much favorable comment.

Principal O'Neill opened the proceedings with remarks appropriate to the occasion and then Miss Ruby Anderson took over to act as mistress of ceremonies. The stage scene opened on a setting depicting a ladies' wear shop with Miss Marie Boulter as the clerk in charge and the Misses Dorothy Mc-Leod and Olga Sather as lady customers. In this way the parade of dresses, skirts and dresses was presented with the girls of the various classes wearing the dresses which they themselves had made.

The parade concluded with novelty by Grade 7 girls of which wore aprons to depict the point values of meat ration coupons in a novel way, explanation being by

Before the closing, Mr. O'Neill introduced the two home economics instructresses, the Misses Alma Snyder and Elizabeth Young, both of whom spoke briefly. In the course of his remarks during the afternoon Mr. O'Neill mentioned how Rev. E. W. Scott had stepped into the breach to assist with manual training instruction when no teacher could be obtained.

A musical program included • piano solos by Peggy Large and vocal solos by Miss Sally Sodeberg, accompanied by Miss Janet Roch-

Miss Patricia McClymont presided at the piano during the dress display and for the accompanying of "O Canada" and "God Save the King."

Norwegian Film

Large Audience Attends Midnight Show at Capitol-Little

extent of local Norwegians, there was quite a large gathering last night at the Capitol Theatre for a special midnight showing of the Norwegian film "Gest Baardsen." presented under the auspices of the local Sons of Norway Lodge with proceeds for the Little Norway air training camp near Toronto With actionful story, excellent photography, fine musical background and beautiful scenic settings of the Old Land, "Gest Baardsen" depicted the romance and adventures of a modern Norwegian Robin Hood who broke out of prison where he had been incarcerated for an offecne which he did not commit and proceeded to rob the rich to help the poor. Dialogue was in Norwegian but there were explanatory captions in English which made it possible for those not understanding Norwegian to follow the story. The picture was produced in Norway shortly before the invasion and there was a star Norwegian cast.
