ditions an impressive international military parade consisting of both men and women of the armed forces and including represetation of navy, army and Afternoon to Mark Opening equipment was held yesterday lafternoon to signalize the Fifth Victory Loan campaign opening in Prince Rupert. A substantial turn-out of veterans of the last war under President Dr. R. C. Bamford of the Canadian Legion participated in the parade. A detachment of the Frince Rupert Machine Gun Regiment with Lieut. D. G. Borland in charge, the Prince Rupert Sea Cadets Corps and the Red Cross Women's Corps were also represented. It was a smart procession which marched along Third Avenue and past the Post Office where Group Captain Roy H. Foss took the salute.

One of the features of the parade was the making of its debut by the newly formed band of the Prince Rupert Machine Gun Regiment under Bandmaster Peter Lien. The local naval band and the Sea Cadets's bugle and drum band also provided music.

Third Avenue was gaily decorated with streamers of flags strung across the street and the Post Office was similarly adorn-

Many citizens turned out to see the parade and showed a measure of enthusiasm.
