War In This Area...

We would do well not to ignore the fact that the possibility of Prince Rupert becoming physically involved in the spreading global warfare is not too remote. It is now but reasonable to suppose that, if the war goes on much longer, we may feel its actuality here. What form that actuality may take is a matter of speculation. There are many possibilities which we need be only realistic to imagine. We cannot be called alarming in discussing the possibility. We would be foolish indeed to ignore it. Once again we suggest that there is ample opportunity to get into the defence organizations in one way or another. Indeed it would appear to be a duty to ourselves and the community to be doing something along these lines. It may be already getting late.
