Farewell Party Officers' Mess

Matron of Military Hospital Honored at Gathering—Presentation to Lieut. Koester

A delightful farewell party was held last night at the officers' mess of an eastern regiment last evening in honor of Nursing Sister Nell Koester who is leaving Prince Rupert next week after having been stationed here for the past year as matron of the local military hospital. Guests included local military and hospital nurses, as well as members of Prince Rupert branch of the Registered Nurses' Association. Splendid music was furnished by the regimental orchestra.

After the serving of delicious refreshments, occasion was taken to present Nursing Sister Koester with a handsome leather wallet, this being the gift of the Registered Nurses' Association of which the guest of honor has been an active member. The presentation was made by Miss Eleanor Graham, R.N., president of the association, who made remarks suitable to the occasion. Nursing Sister Koester, in reply, spoke appreciatively.

About seventy persons were in attendance and Mrs. O. L. Murray, R.N., was in charge for the Registered Nurses' Association.

Summer Follows Winter Quickly

Sudden Change in Weather Conditions at Smithers

SMITHERS, April 15 — Summer trod hard on the heels of winter when fine bright and very warm weather visited this area only two weeks and less since the winter game of curling was still being indulged in.

With the warm weather came many birds including the robins, bluebirds and some swallows to make it seem as though summer was actually at hand.

The springtime practice of burning off the dead grass from last year is now in full swing and the vacant lots and roadsides are taking on a very black appearance temporarily, until the green grass gets the upper hand again.
