Miss Kay O'Neill Becomes Bride Of Petty Officer Ronald Davidson at First Presbyterian Church

a hawthorne-banked chancel in First Presbyterian Church, tastefully decorated for white accessories and corsage of the occasion with summer flowers, a lovely wedding took place at 8.0'clock Saturday night when Miss Kathleen Barbara O'Neill, younger daughter of Mr. the groom suitably responding. and Mrs. W. W. C. O'Neill of this city, became the bride of Petty Officer Ronald James Davidson, R.C.N., only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Davidson of Victoria. There was a large congregation of friends to witness the nuptial rite which was performed by the pastor, Rev. A. F. MacSween.

The petite bride was a pretty picture indeed as she came down the aisle on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. Her formal wedding dress was a dainty creation of white French organza, bridal rose design, complemented by lace fingerless gloves. A finger tip veil was held in place with a matching coronet. The shower bouquet was of deep red roses.

Miss Delphine Balagno was a charming bridesmaid, her floor length costume being of pale blue full net with matching picture hat and bouquet of pink carnations.

The ushers were Petty Officer James Grieve and Stoker Earl BARE LEGS MacDonald.

Following the cnurch ceremony, bridal party and invited guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, 612 Young Street, where, under a hawthorne arch, the couple received the felicitations of assembled friends. The guests were received by the bride's mother who wore navy blue crepe with white gardenias.

During the evening a toast to the bride was fittingly proposed by Rec. A. F. MacSween with The bride's father proposed a toast to the bridesmaid to which the groomsman responded.

Then followed the serving of delicious refreshments. Mrs. Balagno and Mrs. James Simpson poured, the serviteurs being Mrs. Alf Rivett and the Misses Dorothy O'Neill, Charlotte Balagno, Helen Balagno, Nora McCaffery, Frances Moore, and Chorlotte Dodimead.
